מיכאל

In 2018 God told me, the author of this book, that I am "Michael," the individual mentioned in the Book of Daniel 12:1 in the Bible to appear at the end time.

Daniel 12:1

"At that time Michael, the great prince who protects your people, will arise. There will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then."

This is the time. The time is now. My presence is biblical and stated to come from the Word of God. Prepare for Judgment Day and prepare for the rise of the Antichrist.

Preface

It is with the utmost seriousness that I declare that the revelation in this book is my true experience. Nothing about my testimony is fabricated.

I, as God as my witness, declare the revelation revealed in this book was given to me by God, the one true God, Yahweh.

The Story

In the year 2018, God told me we are living in The End Times and that the Antichrist is among us. God told me the human incarnation of Satan is a man named Jared Leto.

Not knowing much about him, I researched him. Soon after God told me he is the Antichrist, many articles and videos about this person's behavior were being released and were circulating around the internet. There are articles, videos, and images of this individual starting a cult, holding events on an isolated private island, reports of him involved in sexual assault and predatory behavior towards minors, and many other testimonies of evil emanating from this individual.

Soon after God told me Jared Leto is Satan, this person's music started playing on my phone without me touching the phone (this man has a music band and has released a few albums and his music started playing on my phone). More and more things of this nature started happening.

On one occasion, I was walking down the sidewalk and noticed a man staring at me from across the street, walking on the other side of the sidewalk, in the opposing direction. He wasn't just staring at me, he was glaring. His eyes were as wide as they could open. He had an expression on his face of fear, anger, discomfort, hatred, rage. He looked at me as if he was about to run across the street and try to kill me - that, or turn around and start fleeing away from me in fear.

He looked at me as if I were Death itself.

He looked at me like I was a threat to him, as if he knew who I was and that I know what he really is beneath the skin.

This man had two identical triad tattoos on each of his forearms, two identical tattoos of arrows pointed in the upward directions on the back of his legs, and another tattoo of an "X" inside of a circle on his left arm.

This individual was Jared Leto.

Three women, who appeared to be fans of Jared Leto, ran after him to see him, and remarked, "Is that Jared Leto?" as they ran past me.

The whole world felt different, as if dark and light had collided - the atmosphere in the air felt heavy, as if there was pressure as dense as the ocean bearing down on me and the world - and as I walked past a fire hydrant, the hydrant burst open on its own, water shooting out of it.

Not too long after this event, months later, Jared Leto appeared at my workplace while I was there, and I witnessed him entering my life, once again.

God has been moving this knowledge of the Antichrist's identity to my attention.
The experiences I have listed are a fraction of my experiences.

Make no mistake, the Antichrist is Jared Leto.

Jared Leto is Satan.

Jared Leto is the "man of sin" (2 Thessalonians 2:3 from the King James translation).

2 Thessalonians 2:3-4 (New International Version)

"Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God's temple, proclaiming himself to be God."

Jared Leto is a spiritual autonomous clone of Satan. He is the result of Satan's spirit and soul injected into the form of a human. Just how Jesus was God in the flesh, Jared Leto is Satan in the flesh, the Antichrist, the man of sin. He will proclaim to be God.

Jared Leto is forming a cult.

Satan is using humanity's attraction and admiration for music and actors and celebrities and glamour to garner a cult. By touring around the world in a high-profile rock band, the Antichrist is able to campaign around the world, amassing followers internationally in numbers that would be difficult to amass otherwise.

He is preemptively encouraging people to put tattoos (visual identification markers) on their bodies as it is foretold the Antichrist would in The Book of Revelation (Rev. 13:15-17).

"The second beast was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast [the followers of the Antichrist], so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed. It also forced all people, great and small, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hands or on their foreheads, so that they could not buy or sell unless they had the mark."

He will eventually have people get these tattoos engraved on the most visible parts of the body, the face and hands, places clothes rarely cover, so everyone can see who is a follower of Satan and a part of his tribe and who is not. Satan and Satan's followers will try to make life as difficult and unbearable as they possibly can for God's followers in a strategic fashion to those who resist joining him. The Satanists will try to economically suffocate those who refuse to join them and take the mark of the beast by refusing to allow outsiders (God's people) from getting what they need to survive. They will boycott God's people, refusing to trade with them and refusing them the ability to freely buy and sell what they need to live. This will be a tactic used to test God's people and will be an attempt to discourage them from following. The easily identifiable tattoos on the hand or face will be a requirement among the Satanists so they can easily see who is with them and who is not.

And in this day in age, especially where there is already a historical precedent of people physically labeling people to ostracize them, like how the Nazi's did it, it is more convenient for a manipulative individual, i.e. Jared Leto, to get his own followers to mark themselves to divide people into groups of the "desired" and "undesired" instead of targeting people who are following God.

This is what Jared Leto is doing right now.

This is what he has been working towards his whole life.

his music career, his acting career, his "Camp Mars" and "Mars Island" retreats, his cult "the Echelon," his documentaries, his virtue signaling fund raisers, etc. - they've all been the building blocks to gather a global following to trigger an event that will lead to world domination and will create a world that is anti-God and anti-Christ, where everyone is an antichrist

What Satan wants is to see who is with who - who is following him and who is following God. How people physically and visually display and identify themselves is their uniform for who they swear their allegiance to - as it has been since humanity started grouping into factions - the wheel isn't going to be reinvented, it's going to be the same situation now as it has always been. Satanists getting tattoos on themselves will be a way for them identify themselves to one another around the world and identify those who are not with them. Having visual markers to signify who is "an ally" allows Satan's followers to use deductive reasoning to determine instantly, by the glance of the eye, who is "the enemy" if someone does not have the mark of the beast on their body, one of Jared Leto's 30 Seconds to Mars tattoos.

This will demonstrate who is "desirable" and who is an "undesirable," like how Adolf Hitler identified "undesirables" by putting certain symbols on their clothing or tattoos on their bodies to inform the general population on who to exterminate. The Antichrist is going to do this by telling people who follow him to mark themselves with his symbology. Think how some gangs operate and how gang members have to get a gang tattoo on their body to mark them so other gang members and rival gang members know who has sworn allegiance.

Satan is forming a gang, and if his followers get a tattoo of the mark of the beast on their face, it shows major dedication.

In the Book of Revelation it is prophesied that the Antichrist will persecute those who do not have the mark of the beast on their bodies.

Revelation 13:15:

"The second beast was given power to give breath to the image of the first beast, so that the image could speak and cause all who refused to worship the image to be killed."

The Antichrist's nature is to achieve the status of a god and achieve world domination at any cost and not settle for anything less. Jared Leto has formed his cult and will soon be moving to the next phase of domination and will be using his followers to impose his rule over others.

Using "the mark of the beast," Jared Leto's designated tattoo symbols, as identification markers, his followers will be able to bully and intimidate people into following him.

He is at war with God and humanity and seeks to capture people's souls. The battleground is not being fought on a geographic location, but the battleground is humanity itself.

This is the end of days.

The world is ending now.

Prepare.

Rebuke Satan.

Follow Jesus.

Fear not.

Pledge your soul to God and no one else and God will save your soul.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us" - Hebrews 12.1

This is the End of Days. Throw off the darkness within us and ignite God's light within us and race forward toward God.

Michael & the End Time: Daniel 12

Daniel 12:1

And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

12:2

And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

12:3

And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever

12:10

Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

The Man of Sin, The Son of Perdition: 2 Thessalonians 2: 1-12

KJV

Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,
That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.
Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;
Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.
Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?
And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.
For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.
And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, and with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

NIV

Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to Him, we ask you, brothers, not to be easily disconcerted or alarmed by any spirit or message or letter seeming to be from us, alleging that the Day of the Lord has already come. Let no one deceive you in any way, for it will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness—the son of destruction—is revealed. He will oppose and exalt himself above every so-called god or object of worship. So, he will seat himself in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.
Do you not remember that I told you these things while I was still with you? And you know what is now restraining him, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, but the one who now restrains it will continue until he is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will slay with the breath of His mouth and annihilate by the majesty of His arrival.
The coming of the lawless one will be accompanied by the working of Satan, with every kind of power, sign, and false wonder, and with every wicked deception directed against those who are perishing, because they refused the love of the truth that would have saved them. For this reason, God will send them a powerful delusion so that they believe the lie, in order that judgment may come upon all who have disbelieved the truth and delighted in wickedness.

The Dragon, the Beast, The False Prophet: The Book of Revelation

Revelation 16:2

The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land, and ugly, festering sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshiped its image.

Revelation 16:13

Then I saw three impure spirits that looked like frogs; they came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

Revelation 19:20

But the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who had performed the signs on its behalf. With these signs he had deluded those who had received the mark of the beast and worshiped its image. The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.

Revelation 20:10

And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Revelation 14:11

And the smoke of their torment will rise for ever and ever. There will be no rest day or night for those who worship the beast and its image, or for anyone who receives the mark of its name.

Revelation 20:4

I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony about Jesus and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

A Brief Synopsis of Jared Leto's Life

Jared Leto was born with the name Jared Joseph Bryant on December 26, 1971 in Bossier City, Louisiana, U.S.A. Jared's mother married her second husband who had the last name of "Leto," and Jared uses the surname "Leto" as his surname now. He grew up traveling around many places in America and even spent time in Haiti as a child. He is known for being a high-profile actor and musician. The band became a mainstream band almost at the moment of conception. It is rumored that in order to get the band famous globally, Jared Leto used money that he made from acting to pay a record label to sign the band on and publicize the band.

Jared's acting career took off when he was cast in a TV show My So Called Life, which aired in 1994; he played the male lead role and was cast as a male-sex-appeal character, which later on helped him gather a fanbase that sexualized him and followed him because of their sin of lust. He then got into films like Fight Club (1999), Requiem for a Dream (2000) and Dolles Buyers Club (2014). He won the academy award for Best Supporting Actor for playing a transgender in Dolles Buyers Club.

He started his rock band 30 Seconds to Mars in 1998. Jared Leto is the song writer, singer, and the brain of the band. His brother Shannon is the drummer of the band. The band has been internationally successful. He uses his band to form his cult, which he calls his Echelon.

He has amassed a considerable amount of wealth through investing in many successful companies like Uber, Airbnb, and Spotify. He is said to be one of the biggest names in Silicon Valley for his aggressive investing and holds a lot of power and status in the field of Silicon Valley and big tech. Along with the money he has made from music, acting, and from other ventures like being the face for the ad campaign of the luxury clothing company Gucci this investment money will likely be used as the funding to further Leto's means to a world take over.

He has ties with left-wing politics and politicians and the Democratic Party. He co-hosted a fundraiser for Barack Obama in 2012 and attended the Democratic National Convention in 2012. These connections will likely aid Leto's rise to power. He is connected to the top politicians of the Democratic Party, some of the biggest names in big tech and Silicon Valley, and he is well connected in Hollywood entertainment (both the music and film/television industries).

He has a massive cult around the world that he has gathered for over 20 years. He publicly calls his cult a cult. Many people in his cult worship him. He refers to his cult as his "family" and encourages them to call each other family. He even sells t-shirts to his fans that say "family" on them. Many cults encourage calling each other a family to create an "instant intimacy" and brainwash the followers into trusting their leader so they can be easily manipulated.

His home residence is a former US Air Force compound that is in Los Angeles, California (at the time of this book edition's publishing).

Jared Leto has a reputation of being a sexual predator, especially towards young girls between the ages of 12-17.

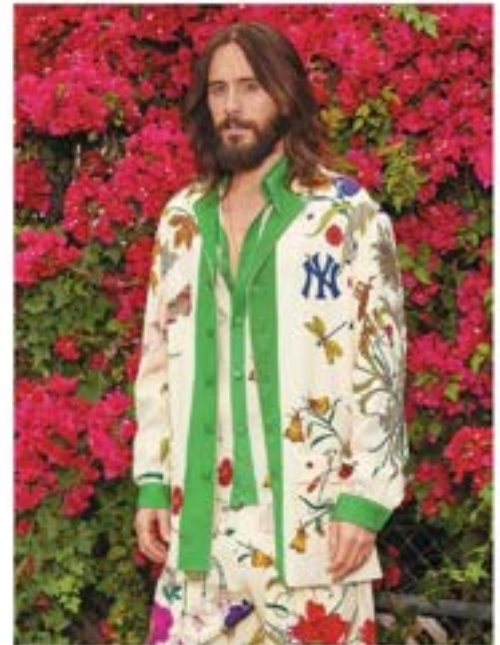

The Man of Lawlessness

It is prophesied in the Bible that "the Antichrist" will be an individual who stands out from all the rest of the people in the world. He is referred to as "the man of lawlessness" or "the mans of sin" in scripture.

Jared Leto is this individual.

He is using his cult personality, music, being a rockstar, and being an actor as a means to take over the world.

1 John 2:18

Dear children, this is the last hour; and as you have heard that the antichrist is coming

2 Thessalonians 2: 1-4

Concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers and sisters, not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by the teaching allegedly from us—whether by a prophecy or by word of mouth or by letter—asserting that the day of the Lord has already come. Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God

Revelation 19:20

And the Beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who in its presence had worked the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the Beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulphur.

Revelation 20:10

And the Devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulphur, where the Beast and the false prophet were, and shall be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Rise to Power

For those who are skeptical about Jared Leto becoming a political leader, remember, Donald Trump was just considered a random celebrity before he became the president of the United States of America, Jared Leto can do the same. Jared Leto has big connections in the Democratic Party, Hollywood entertainment, and Silicon Valley tech companies and with these connections, Leto is poised to be in a position of great political power when he so chooses.

And for those who are skeptical of Jared Leto's ability to become popular enough to become a political authority, note that in every time in human history, when someone has seized power, they never had the support and admiration of everyone, and neither will the Antichrist when he takes over the world, and neither will Jared Leto. The world will see what Jared Leto will do in time. The world will witness how people will be given the choice between certain leaders and how people of the world will gravitate toward someone who advocates for debauchery and who empowers the sinners of the world.

Jared Leto may not even be greatly admired by the people who eventually follow him when he increases in power, yet these people will see him as the best candidate and best possible means for them to become more powerful in the world and for their sinful interests to be obtainable. Similarly to how some people vote for political candidates that they do not fully endorse, people who ultimately do not want to repent and follow God's ways will see the False Prophet's rise to power as a means to not have to change and they will support Jared Leto despite not fully endorsing everything about him or personally caring about who he is.

There will also be people who are addicted to "being comfortable" who will not want to give up their materialistic possessions and their way of life. They will not want to sacrifice their livelihood for God and these people will side with the False Prophet and join his cult so they can retain the lifestyle that they want. And there will be Christians who have addictions to things, like how Judas Iscariot had an addiction to money and betrayed Jesus because of his plight, these Christians will give up God say they can still have access to the carnal benefits of joining the cult of Satan.

America, the title of Jared Leto's 5th studio album, is the most powerful country in the world, and Satan has incarnated in America to likely take over America and use the power of this country to take over and rule the rest of the world.

All Jared Leto needs is enough of a following of people to turn the tide in his favor. Jared Leto has amassed millions of people around the world who admire him for his music and acting career. If Jared Leto goes into politics, he could have devastating influence in the world. These people will be his foot soldiers who will try to convert other people to the Church of Mars, which is what Jared Leto's "church" and cult is sometimes called. He calls his followers his "echelon", which can literally mean "a formation of troops" and a "rank within a military." Jared Leto is building a quiet army.

In this world, where life will become harder for people, people will look for a reason to keep their hope alive. People will turn toward God or toward Jared Leto and Satan to put their faith into. Depending on whether a person is sinful and distant from God, they will gravitate towards Jared Leto for their "salvation." For people who hate the idea of repenting and admitting to their sins and faults as God wants people to, Jared Leto will likely try giving people a self-congratulatory alternative by telling people that they are just fine how they are and that God's judgmental nature is evil and hateful; this rhetoric may be appealing to many people. People may not need to like Jared Leto's personality or be a fan of his acting and music career to admire how he rejects responsibility.

God is using Jared Leto, the incarnation of Satan, like a magnet who is attracting the sinners, the godless, and god-hating people of the world to Jared Leto. The world will divide and it will become clear who is with God and who is against God. God will send plagues to humble the satanists before the final judgement of sending people to Hell. Those who do not give up their sin and hatred for God will be sent to Hell. Since Satan instinctively tries to take over the world and make himself God, God is using Satan's ambition to lure the sinners into one distinct gathering so they can be judged. God is using Satan's desire for power against him just as God is using the temptations of the power-hungry sinners of the world against themselves, who seek a leader to create a world as they see fit.

Why is America the nation where the man of sin resides?

This is an explanation aimed to answer a series of questions I am commonly asked:

"Why would the man of sin, Jared Leto, be an American?"

"Why would the man of sin be operating in America and not another country?"

Many people believe the man of sin will be "the pope" or will come from a Muslim country, or they have some other theory as to who the man of sin will be. Hearing that an American is the man of sin, especially considering he is Jared Leto, comes as a surprise to many people and some people find it hard to believe.

Satan does not "build," he "steals."

First, understand that Satan, as well as the incarnation of Satan, the man of sin, is like a parasite. Satan does not build his own kingdom from the ground up, he takes civilizations that are built by someone else and tries to take control of them like a how a parasite may take over their host's mind. The man of sin has the desire to make himself God of everyone and rule the world, therefore he would want to target and take over the most powerful nation in the world so he can take over the rest of the world.

America is known as the most powerful nation to ever exist in human history. If the man of sin, the incarnation of Satan, desired to take over the world to form his satanic new world order and needed to choose one nation to initially take control over to then control and potentially influence and invade the rest of the world, the obvious choice would be to take over the most powerful nation in the world first, the United States of America.

America is also the most culturally influential country. Consider American politics, Hollywood entertainment and the American film industry, American music, American sports entertainment, American clothing and fashion, American inventions (the automobile, the locomotive, inventions from the industrial revolution, the phone, the list goes on), American Big Tech, Silicon Valley, and successful American enterprises; if the man of sin desired to broadcast himself and his vision for how he envisions the world to be, he would want the most culturally influential nation, which also happens to be America. A person can dominate the world and control people by being the judge and the epicenter of what is "fashionable" and what "isn't fashionable," what is "cool" and "uncool," what is "trendy" and what "isn't."

If the man of sin were to control America he would control the most powerful military in the world and the most culturally influential nation in the world.

"Art and beauty" are the battleground for which God and Satan battle for the hearts of men. The devil likes rebranding what "beauty" is through art to normalize sin and entice people to sin. If the devil can make sinning look "beautiful" and "sexy," it will make sinning not look like sinning, but it will make sinning look fashionable, glamorous, and righteous.

Isaiah 5:20: "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

Notice how Jared Leto is involved in the arts: music, film, television, fashion, clothing. He is on the cover of vogue magazine, he goes to red carpet events - this is his way of trying to control culture, which is another way of trying to control people. Jared Leto fits the psychological profile of Satan in how he tries to influence culture to influence the behavior of people.

There are different ways a person can control people. One way is by intimidation, but another way is by trying to be alluring and tempting. Jared Leto is trying to be a trendsetter and to try to make people follow him and do what he wants to do while avoiding having to act noticeably controlling or like an oppressive force.

Jared Leto went from THIS → to THIS, overnight.

In the late 1990s and early 2000s there were a lot of kids who were "lost" in the world. Many of them felt like outsiders and felt rejected. Many of these kids then formed what is called "emo" or "scene." Jared strategically marketed and branded his band to exploit one of most vulnerable types of people out there.

Jared Leto personally was not one of these kids or had anything in common with them. He was becoming a famous actor. He had a big role in the show My So Called Life in 1994. He had no reason to associate with "emo kids" or enter their culture.

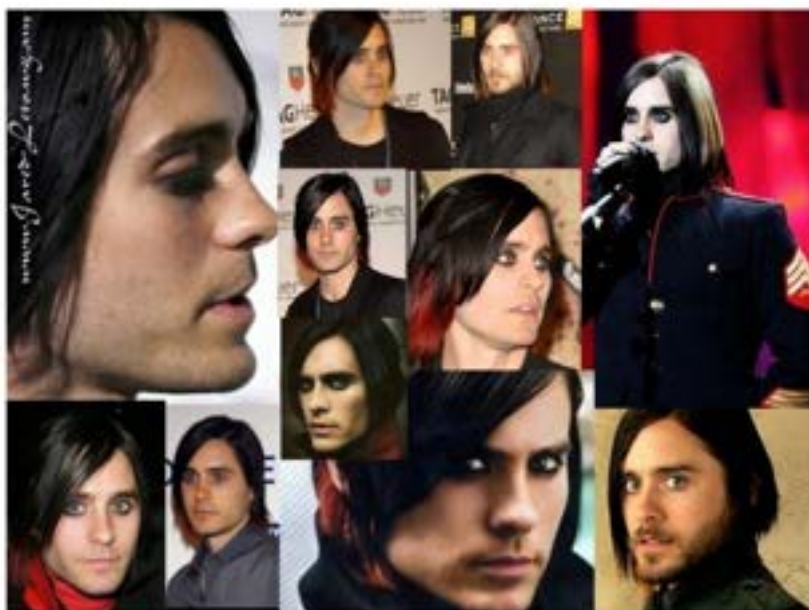

But he wanted to form a cult and a great following, and what better way to do that than to make vulnerable and easily manipulatable children and young adults feel like they could be a part of something. So he made a band called 30 Seconds to Mars which branded itself as an emo band, so he then changed his look to appeal to the people he was trying to exploit.

All of a sudden Jared Leto wore eye liner, made his hair to look "emo" and "goth" by dying it and straightening and styling it in a particular manner and he wore emo clothing to fit in and appear more appealing to his target audience.

He behaves like a chameleon, fitting in with whatever group he must to incorporate them into his cult.

30 Seconds to Mars was constructed for the purpose of creating a cult. He now calls his cult his "echelon," which means "army."

He's not a "Hollywood eccentric," he's a strategic manipulator.

Jared Leto is like a chameleon, changing his outward appearance to fit into any crowd or any role he needs to further his fame in the world.

Questions and Answers About the Incarnation of Satan Part 1

Question: Are you sure Jared Leto is Satan?

The Answer: Positive.

Question: Is the "Antichrist," the "man of sin" (2 Thessalonians 2:3), the "false prophet" (Revelation 16:13, 19:20, 20:10), and the "incarnation of Satan" the same person?

The Answer: Yes.

Question: Okay, so Jared Leto is the incarnation of Satan, what do I do now? What do I do with this information?

The Answer: Share this information. Tell people. Inform people of this cult that is growing so other people do not get sucked into it. Like a disease that is spreading and infecting people, raising awareness is the first suit of armor people can wear to protect themselves from falling into this trap of following Satan. The more people who are aware, the less likely their souls will be pulled into darkness.

After sharing this information with a Christian about who the Antichrist is, they believed me and believed this individual to be Satan, but the Christian still asked me this: "Why are you sharing this with me? It's not my job to know this information or to judge anyone. I don't need to know who the Antichrist is, nor will I ever follow him because I already follow God and Jesus, so why should I know who the Antichrist is?"

The Answer: Because other people are going to flock toward the man of sin, Jared Leto. Friends, family, and other people you know, and people around you, and the world at large will follow him, and it is up to us to help people find God and know the truth. The more informed we are on this information, the more we can be better prepared to have educated discussions with people and explain the dangers of following this person with authority. If you are truly loving and compassionate, you will want to help these people not fall into the trap of Satan and follow Satan and be led to their demise. Just how a good friend warns another friend of something dangerous so they don't get hurt, we must warn each other of the danger that is coming and of the satanic cult that is growing in the world.

Question: Why will the people of the world follow Satan?

The Answer: There are many reasons. The main reasons are: people who want to continue sinning, and people who do not want to take responsibility for their actions will want to find refuge in a community of people who feel and think the same, so they will flock to the most unapologetic, unrepentant person they can find to give them the validation of being who they are and they will find Satan an inspiration to them. Jared Leto, Satan in the flesh, will already have a massive cult from his fanbase 30 Seconds to Mars and from his acting career and these people will encourage people to follow Leto and people will funnel into Satan's cult.

Questions and Answers about the Incarnation of Satan Part 2

Question: Is it hateful to call out the Antichrist? Are you hating him by making this video about him?

The Answer: No. I am not hating him. If you watch the video I made on MichaelCastingPearls.com/satan or read my research on Jared Leto, I am not saying anything to him with hate or anger, I am simply informing the world what God has revealed to me. I have not encouraged anyone to hurt or harass Satan. I have not slandered him. Slander is making up false accusations to ruin someone's reputation, and I am not making up any false accusations.

What I am saying is based on evidence and the truth, and I am not trying to ruin Satan's reputation. If anything, he ruined his own reputation for living the life he has lived. I am only revealing who he is and what he has done and what he is up to, it is his own fault for doing what he has done and being who he is. And there is not much of a point in trying to ruin his reputation even if that was what I desired, since it is prophesied the Antichrist will be allowed to reach world domination, people will follow him regardless of how inflammatory anyone is about him; it ultimately makes no difference. What I am doing is not hateful, but the opposite. I am being compassionate by informing people of the danger that is Satan. And I hope the Antichrist turns away from his sins and finds God. Though, it is prophesied that the Devil will go to Hell and will be unrepentant, so it appears no matter how hard I pray for him or whatever I do for him to help him, he has chosen to not turn away from sin and his desire to become a god. I am aware of the process that God is using Satan for and I am not encouraging anyone to harm him, for it is God who will ultimately judge him and send him to Hell after God is finished using Satan for His purposes of using Satan to gather the evil people of the world together to remove them from the righteous population of people.

Question: Can you please explain to me what the "Antichrist" is? Who is he?

The Answer: Jared Leto is the autonomous human incarnation of the angel Satan. Jared Leto is Satan, but Satan is divided into two persons, like how God is divided into two persons, God the Father and God the Son, Jesus Christ. "The Antichrist" specifically refers to the part of Satan that took human form on this Earth. He has a separate mind than the angel he is derived from. He is cut from the same cloth as Satan. Leto is like a human clone of Satan. Leto has the same spirit and desires as the angel Satan. He desires to be worshiped as a god and to be declared "the god" of everything and to have power and control over everyone and everything. Satan and Satan's human incarnation, Jared Leto, are highly intuitive sociopaths. They are "empathic," meaning: they can understand people and how they think very quickly and know how to behave to manipulate people and to not be detected as evil, which allows Leto to "fly under the radar," so to speak. Leto is not as intelligent as the angel Satan; Leto has roughly the same intelligence as a normal person.

Questions and Answers about the Incarnation of Satan Part 3

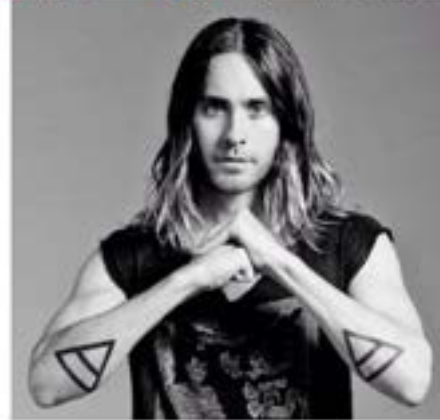

Question: Why does God allow Satan to have that kind of power and be "the god of this world" (2 Corinthians 4:4)?

The Answer: Many reasons; part of the answer was explained in the previous question, but the few main reasons are: 1) God is using Satan as a magnet to attract all the unrepentant sinners of the world together so they can separate from the people who want to follow God, where these two groups of people will be judged accordingly and the truly unrepentant sinners will go to Hell along with Satan - this is an ingenious plan, considering that someone who is not a Christian, who does not believe in the Christian narrative or that Jared Leto is Satan, will either be attracted to or repulsed by the incarnation of Satan, Jared Leto, which exemplifies whether this person is good or evil; birds of a feather flock together. People are demonstrating whether they are good or evil and how they should be judged by God based on who they are attracted to as a leader. The two individuals that God has designated to be the leaders of either God's way or sin are: Michael, the author of this book, the individual prophesied in Daniel 12:1, and Jared Leto, respectively. 2) Because humanity has the chance to experience what a "false god's" leadership looks like and how miserable life is underneath a false god, like Satan, so when they experience God's leadership, they can better appreciate God's leadership. Since the first humans did not appreciate God's leadership and they were rebellious, God gave humans an alternative experience by allow Satan to be "the god of this world" (2 Corinthians 4:4) so they can experience the insanity, chaos and the suffering of what life is like without God being in control. This way humanity can better appreciate life with God once God throws Satan in Hell and is done with him.

Question: Ok. So, I understand Jared Leto has a cult and a group of people following him, but how does he take over the world exactly? How does an actor/musician celebrity end up taking over the world with the following that he has? Jared Leto may have millions of fans, but the world has more than 7 billion people. How does Satan take over the world from the position he is in right now?

The Answer: All that Jared Leto has to accomplish right now is becoming as famous as possible and clutching a sizable cult following. The "angel Satan" who controls the world from the outside will eventually give the Jared Leto the ability to perform miracles and the whole world will witness these miracles and be impressed with him and people will think that he is a god and savior. Jared Leto's initial cult following, the people who are already following Jared, will be greatly impressed and in awe of Jared Leto while the rest of the world may be in a place of skepticism, but the cult following of Jared Leto, his "Echelon" as he calls them, will tell the world how great Jared Leto is and how amazing and "kind" and "wonderful" Jared Leto is and will encourage the world to follow him and surrender to him and accept him as their leader. Jared Leto will be able to perform miracles like summoning fire from the sky as it is explained in the Book of Revelation (Rev. 13:13). "And the second beast performed great signs to cause even fire from heaven to come down to earth in the presence of the people." Also note that the man of sin will likely take over the most powerful country in the world first then he will use that countries power to take over the rest; Jared Leto is an American and will likely try taking over America first. Notice that "America" is one of the names in his album. Jared Leto has connections to the Democratic Party (he hosted a fundraiser for Barack Obama in 2012 and helped raise money for him), he is one of the biggest investors and most influential people in Silicon Valley, he is friends with Jeff Bezos and many famous actors and musicians who have huge followings around the world - if the famous celebrities follow Jared Leto and bring along with them their fanbases, that will bring millions and millions of people to him from around the world, and if the Democratic Party endorses Jared Leto, then he has millions more supporters in America. Jared Leto has organized a potentially massive global following that only needs can easily be set in motion when he chooses to become a political leader.

Jared Leto's triangular symbol is an outline of the reverse side of the Great Seal of America, the official seal of The United States of America

Notice how Jared Leto's symbol is an outline of the Great Seal.

Jared Leto's triangle-pyramid symbol (that has a horizontal line through the center) is an outline of the pyramid symbol that's on the American 1-dollar bill. The pyramid symbol on the 1-dollar bill is the reverse image on the Great Seal of the United States of America. This symbol represents "new order," or "new world order." Jared Leto is placing this pyramid symbol, over the Christian cross, creating another symbol, which represents that Satan, Jared Leto, is attempting his satanic new world order over God's order, the Christian order.

This new cross symbol that Jared Leto made (that has the outline of the new world order pyramid symbol overlapping the Christian cross) represents "antichrist" because the symbol is going against everything that Christ represents.

The Latin inscribed underneath of the pyramid on the reverse of the Great Seal I "NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM," which translates to, "new order of the ages."

Of all the symbols could have picked to represent himself, he picks the exact symbol and symbols that so perfectly represent being "antichrist," the new world order symbol defacing the Christian cross. It is probable that this symbol will be the mark of the beast" prophesied to appear at the end time in the Book of Revelation. Many of Jared Leto's followers are getting this mark tattooed on their body and this mark is being heavily advertised by Jared Leto on his merchandise, his clothing line, his album art, etc. He is encouraging his fanbase to get this symbol on their bodies. He has also taken the "illuminati" symbol and placed it over top of the Christian cross, defacing the Christian cross with it, which could only mean "antichrist." And, like a parasite trying to take over its host, Leto is trying to put a new world order on top of a civilization (America) that already exists just how Leto is also placing this triangle symbol on top of the Christian cross as one of his symbols. It is likely that this symbol is the mark of the beast.

The Great Seal of the United States of America

This pyramid symbol represents a "new order under God" and is being appropriated by Jared Leto to represent his desired new world order under himself as a god. "Novus Ordo Seclorum," the Latin inscribed underneath the pyramid symbol, translates to "new order of the ages."

The front of the Great Seal

The reverse of the Great Seal

Historians say the original design of the pyramid on the reverse of the Great Seal, which was officiated in 1782, was designed to represent how America is a new order of the ages. The 13 rows of the pyramid are said to represent the 13 colonies that founded America. The Roman numerals MDCCLXXVI represent 1776, the year America declared independence. The triangle with the eye in the center is called The Eye of Providence.

This symbol is an old Christian symbol that represents God.

The Eye of Providence at the top of the pyramid is said to represent God and how God's divine plan is at the top of America's fate and leadership. ANNUIT COEPTIS, the Latin that is inscribed over the pyramid literally translates to "favors [our] undertakings," but the implied translation means, "Providence has favored our undertakings." The word

"providence" means, "the protective care of God or a spiritual power." The Latin underneath the seal, "NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM," translates to, "new order of the ages."

With all of this information in place, the original meaning of the reverse of the Great Seal is that America is the new order of the ages that is being favored, guided, and protected by God.

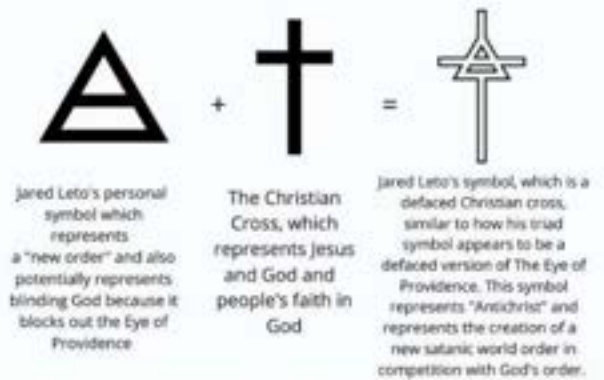

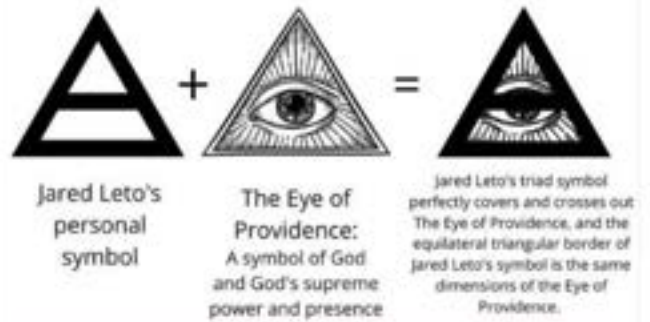

As much as people have suspicions that this symbol's origins are ominous, from my research, I cannot find anything that substantiates that. Even the origins of this symbol appear to be sincere and noble, Jared Leto and Satan have coopted this symbol to represent their new world order that they wish impose on the world and eclipse God's order.

Satan does not build civilizations on his own, he hijacks the civilizations that others built and tries to make himself god of everyone, as he did in Heaven.

Jared Leto's Symbology

The Eye of Providence is an old Christian symbol that represents God, God's awareness, and how God is all-knowing and all-powerful. The middle line in Jared Leto's triad symbol perfectly covers God's eye in The Eye of Providence when placed over top of it, defacing God's eye, symbolically blinding people from God and from truth. Jared Leto may have designed his triad symbol specifically to symbolically represent blinding God's eye in the Eye of Providence and to blind people from seeing God and from seeing the truth.

If this is the case, Jared Leto's triad symbol represents deception, confusion, Satan, the evil kingdom of Babylon (which biblically represents a society that is in a state of darkness and confusion), and this symbol is likely the Mark of the Beast mentioned in The Book of Revelation mentioned in verse Rev. 13:16-17 and Rev. 19:20 and Rev. 20:4. This is the same symbol Jared Leto picked to deface and cover the Christian cross. Jared Leto used his triad symbol to then more overtly deface the Christian cross, yet again, mocking God. And these are the symbols Jared Leto is encouraging people to tattoo on their bodies and these are the symbols he is putting on his merchandise and in his music videos and album art. It is probable that this is the mark of the beast and that Leto wants his followers to wbe marked with a symbol that represents a "satanic new world order"

The Eye of Providence = Seeing the Truth & Being with God

This symbol where the God's eye is crossed out = Blinding people from the Truth & Ignoring the Truth & Going against God

Therefore, Jared Leto's Triad = Blinding people from the Truth & Ignoring the Truth & Going against God

This symbol, above, of Jared Leto seems to represent the death of the "holy trinity", the father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

The Mark of the Beast

PROVEHITO IN ALTUM

Book of Revelation 13:15-17

And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

It is prophesied in the Bible that the False Prophet will encourage and eventually require people to get his symbology on their bodies, Jared Leto is currently doing this. These are his symbols. Any one of these symbols could be the mark of the beast, or if Jared Leto wishes it to be, all of these symbols could potentially interchangeably be officially recognized and approved to be the mark. Most likely the cross symbol with the triangle placed in the center will be the mark of the beast.

Book of Revelation 16:2

And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

Book of Revelation 19:20

And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone

Jared Leto uses symbology like how Adolf Hitler used symbology to create a regime

Jared Leto's Symbol

NAZI SYMBOL

HINDU SWASTIKA

Hitler took an ancient sacred spiritual symbol and twisted and modified it and incorporated it into his own symbology. Jared Leto is taking an ancient sacred spiritual symbol and twisting it and modifying it. And of all the symbols he could be doing this to, it is the Christian symbol, Jesus' cross.

He puts this symbol on his merchandise and his fans proudly wear it.

In pagan, alchemic, and "new age" circles, this symbol, a upward pointed triangle with a line crossed through the upper-middle section of the triangle, is regarded as the elemental symbol for "air".

These are the "four elemental symbols" in alchemy.

THE FOUR ELEMENTS

AIR

WATER

Jared Leto's symbol is similar alchemic symbol for air. In the Bible, Satan is referred to as the "prince of the air," or the "ruler of the kingdom of the air" in Ephesians 2:1-2

Ephesians 2:1-2 - New King James Version

"And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins, in which you once walked according to the [a]course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience"

Ephesians 2:1-2 - The New International Version

"As for you, you were dead in your transgressions and sins, in which you used to live when you followed the ways of this world and of the ruler of the kingdom of the air, the spirit who is now at work in those who are disobedient."

Jared Leto is the "prince of the air," as it is no surprise as he would gravitate to referencing "the air" in his own personal symbology.

Jared Leto's triad symbol is in the background in almost all of his concerts. People worship him and inadvertently "the mark of the beast."

Revelation 13:8: "All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast—all whose names have not been written in the Lamb's book of life, the Lamb who was slain from the creation of the world."

Revelation 13:5 "And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed."

Jared Leto crosses out the eyes of his loyal fans

Some people claim that the title This Is War is a reference to Jared Leto's legal battle with his record label. During Jared Leto's documentary Artifact, which is about his legal battle with his record label over control of his band, he mentions the title for his next album is This Is War, which many assumed was because he was "at war" with his record label.

But this explanation is "blinding" people from the real reason why Jared Leto titled this album "This Is War," hence, the crossed out eyes of animals and people on his album covers. The real war that Jared Leto is referencing is the satanic war he is waging against God. And the album covers of his fans' eyes crossed out is symbolic of how people cannot see the truth. The original cover art for the album is an angry tiger who looks like it is ready for war. The tiger's eyes are crossed out. It is noteworthy to understand how Jared Leto is comparing his followers and the people who willfully submitted pictures of their faces to Jared Leto to be used on new album covers for the album. It is as if Jared Leto is saying they are like the blind animal, that they are a bunch of dumb animals that will fight for him when he declares war against the God and the rest of the world. It is as if Leto is saying, "This is war, and this is my army, this is my echelon."

This image of a tiger is the original album art for This Is War.

Here is a photo of a collection of different Album covers. All of their eyes are crossed out - every single one

Mars Island and Camp Mars

Jared Leto invited his followers to a private island in Croatia to attend Mars Island, a 30 Seconds to Mars/Jared Leto-themed "vacation getaway" and told them to dress up in white with him. It costed thousands of dollars to be him on this island for 3 days (between $3,000 and $8,000). Leto also has another annual event called Camp Mars that costs roughly $1000 to spend 3 days with Jared Leto. Attendees are instructed to bring their own camping gear to Camp Mars. This is one way how Jared Leto invites people into his cult and how he markets himself to appear like a "friendly fun guy" to the public and to make his plans to control people appear innocent and appealing.

30 Seconds To Mars have been criticised for asking fans to film themselves getting lyrics to their song 'Do Or Die' tattooed on their bodies in order to appear in a music video for the song.

The US band, fronted by actor Jared Leto, posted a message on their website on Tuesday (July 23) asking for help in making a lyric video for the song, which appears on their latest album 'Love, Lust, Faith + Dreams'. Along with the request are a list of things fans must do in order to have their video qualify for consideration, including close-ups of the area tattooed before, during and after the process. All fans must be filmed saying: "I am the Echelon" before going under the needle and must also explain why they are getting it done.

Fans have criticised the band for their request, with many of the comments underneath the post describing the move as "irresponsible." "I like the band but I don't think this is a good idea at all," says one commenter, while another adds: "It's absolutely irresponsible and probably the worst thing Mars has ever done."

A representative for the band has been contacted by NME but has not commented on the plans for the video.

Earlier this year Enter Shikari's Rou Reynolds criticised 30 Seconds To Mars for charging their fans to meet the band after concerts. Posting a link to a blog which explains how Jared Leto and his band charge fans up to £575 to spend time with them before and after they have played live on their forthcoming US tour, Reynolds wrote that the practice is "exploiting" fans and calling it "madness".

Provehito In Altum

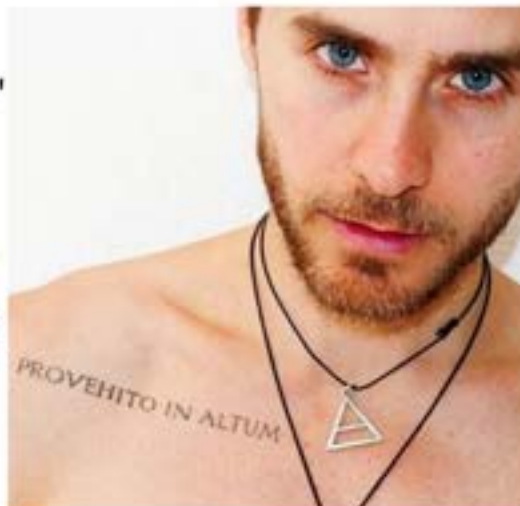

"Provehito In Altum" is a biblical phrase from an ancient Latin Bible that is tattooed on Jared Leto. The phrase can be interpreted in a few ways, but the most literal translation of the term is "Promote yourself into the Most High." "The Most High" is a term commonly used in the Bible to describe God, who is "the Most High." Jared Leto is taking this phrase and applying it to himself instead of God and using it as his motto to "promote himself into the Most High," as if he is saying he is trying to make himself into God. This is what Satan is trying to do, promote himself into the Most High, which is what Jared Leto has tattooed on his body and is a slogan that he has tabled in his merchandise and band history. His cult and his fanbase are familiar with the term and many of his fans and his cult have the phrase tattooed on their bodies. In the Bible, when Satan spoke to Jesus when Jesus was fasting for 40 days, Satan twisted scripture to try to deceive Jesus and to make what is holy unholy, just how Jared Leto is twisting this biblical phrase to mean something satanic and unholy. Jared Leto is likely encouraging his followers to turn their backs to God by telling them to "become gods yourselves!" by encouraging them to "promote yourself into the Most High!", "Provehito In Altum!". This is one of the ways Satan is luring people into following him and he already has trained and groomed people into following his ideologies through this slogan and his satanic song lyrics.

This passage is said to be about Satan.

Isaiah 14:12-14

"How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn!
How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low! You said in your heart, 'I will ascend to heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far reaches of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.'"

Jared Leto's tattoo
"Provehito In Altum"
can be directly
translated into
"Promote yourself into the most high!"

Jared Leto likely has the same natural exploitativestrategical as Hitler did in controlling the masses the same as Hitler. Jared is likely taking pointers and learning lessons of how the Nazi regime's propaganda excited and lured people to it's cause.

Jared Leto Panders to Audiences Around the World by Waving their Country's flag during Concerts

Jared Leto waves the flag of the country he is in at his concerts to campaign for the loyalty of the people in the country. This is how he is trying to gain unanimous approval from people from all parts of the world so he will have supporters in every part of the world who will make his global transition to power easier. Jared Leto simultaneously uses his concerts as a way: for people to worship him on stage; to make a stream of revenue and income to support his world take over; to spread his influence throughout the world and gain more of a following; to use the concert as a form of "church" where people unify underneath the name and authority of "Jared Leto", the "Church of Mars, as it is called; and to train people to follow him as their leader and the person they should be putting their faith into as replacement for God.

Jared Leto's fans find his concerts "fun" and "spectacular" and are captivated by all the flags and music and lights that go on at his concerts. This is a strategic way to influence people, similar to how Hitler used parades to captivate his audience. Hitler used parades with flags and banners, and this made people feel excited and that they were a part of something big and special. Jared Leto is using this same tactic to gather a global audience.

Even though he waves the flags of other countries for now, likely all he wants is to have people wave his flags, which he distributes at his concerts for people to wave. After gaining the trust of people and pandering to them, he will then try to pull them underneath the satanic nation he is trying to form right now.

The band's fourth studio album dropped yesterday, so the show, announced just one day prior by frontman Jared Leto, was an extra special celebration of its release.

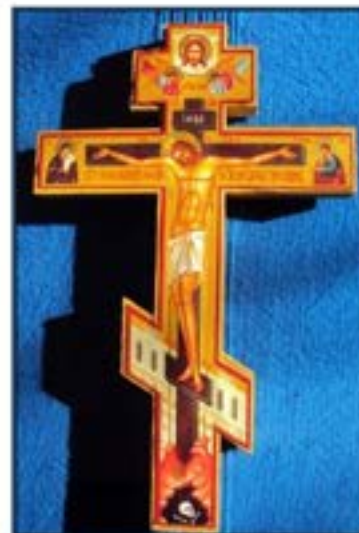

Jared Leto inverts the Eastern Orthodox cross

Jared Leto is clearly not a Christian and does not live a life that resembles anything like the teachings of Jesus, yet he suspiciously wears a Christian cross every now and then. And notice how the Eastern Orthodox cross Jared wears is backwards. Notice how the lowest line in the cross is slanted the other way (see the examples of how the cross is supposed to be oriented below)? Satan tries tainting everything and Jared Leto sports this cross to insult God and Christians by twisting the meaning and appearance of the cross.

One must wonder why he is sporting this sign. For irony? As a joke? To make fun of and mock Christianity?

Pictured below is one of Jared Leto's posts on social media, compare this symbol with the pictures to the right which are accurate representations of what the Eastern Orthodox cross actually looks like.

This is one of the most unbiased analysis of Jared Leto. Andy Fellowes is a recovering cultist. He has a channel on YouTube where he discusses how he used to belong to a cult and how easy it is to find yourself in one and how to spot a cult. He uses his first hand experience and his research in cult subject matter to analyze cults. He makes a measured analytic video of Jared Leto and his cult. While not being fully convinced it is a cult, Fellowes plays devil's advocate with nearly every criticism of Jared Leto. Here are some of Andy Fellowes' statements.

Fellowes mentions how Jared Leto uses the phrase "YES THIS IS A CULT" as a slogan for himself and his cult and how Leto says this as if he is joking, "Of it [the cult] actually being a cult and saying 'It's a cult' as a joke - they are not mutually exclusive. It could be the case that a cult, that is legitimately a cult, is saying, 'Oh it's a cult', as a joke to distract from the fact that it actually is a cult." [Statement made at minute 25:50]

In regards to the time Jared Leto desperately tried to indoctrinate more people into his cult and tried to trick them into taking the mark of the beast by holding a 30 Seconds to Mars contest that included requiring fans to get tattoos of his band symbology on their bodies, Andy Fellowes states, "If we are talking about tattoos and 30 Seconds to Mars, we can't ignore this whole thing that happened ... [reading from an article that was published about Jared Leto] the U.S. band fronted by Jared Leto posted a message Tuesday, July 23rd, asking for help in making a lyric video for the song ... Along with the request are a list of things fans must do in order to have their video qualify for consideration, including close-ups of the area tattooed before, during and after the process. All fans must be filmed saying, "I am the Echelon" (the Echelon is the name of Jared Leto's cult) before going under the needle and must also explain why they are getting it done." [Statement made at minute 23:17]

Two women, independently from my research, came to the conclusion that Jared Leto is trying to take over America and made a video about their research

Sonya Stepanova and Rachel Brown discuss Jared Leto's life and their theories of Jared Leto in their video The Truth About Jared Leto.

They get close to understanding who he is. They discuss his insider financial investments, his political affiliations, his cult, and the false image that people have of him and the false image he tries to project to people. They come to the best conclusion they can with the information they have, but they are missing the information that he is Satan, the Antichrist. They were able to figure out that he is attempting to take over the country without that information.

Jared Leto burns the Bible and the Abrahamic holy texts in his music video Hurricane Jared Leto directs actors to burn books. Not just any books, but the Bible, the Tanakh, and the Quran - the books the Antichrist and Satan are against. The act of normalizing the destruction of Christianity, Judaism and Islam is rooted in Jared Leto's body of work. This video is a music video for his band 30 Seconds to Mars; the song is titled "Hurricane" and primarily consists of anti-God Satanic and pornographic imagery with a random scene of a priest, a rabbi, and an imam burning their respective holy texts in a fire together - the spiritual leaders of Christianity, Judaism, and Islam and essentially denouncing their faith in God.

This section of the film involving the Bible burning is Satan's way of trying to destroy the presence of God on the Earth and to normalize the destruction of Bibles, all holy scripture, God's ways, and the history and memory of holding onto God.

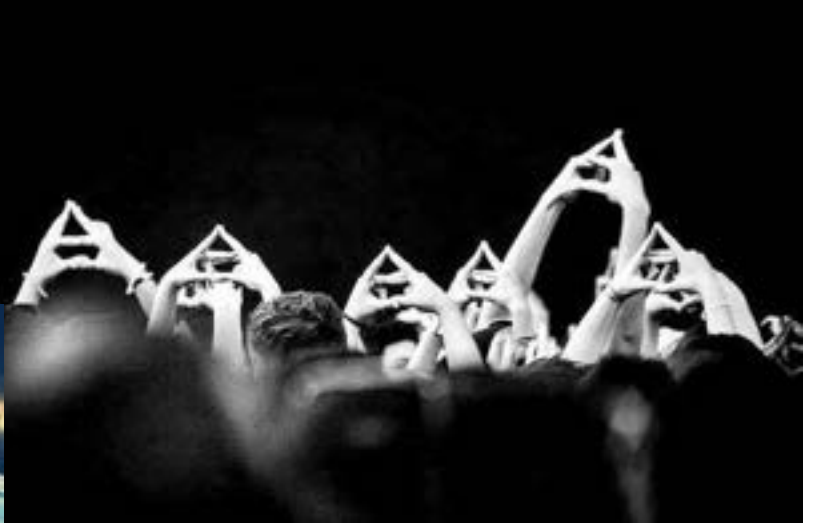

This film represents the destruction of following God and abandoning faith in God and instead following Satan and Satan's ways.

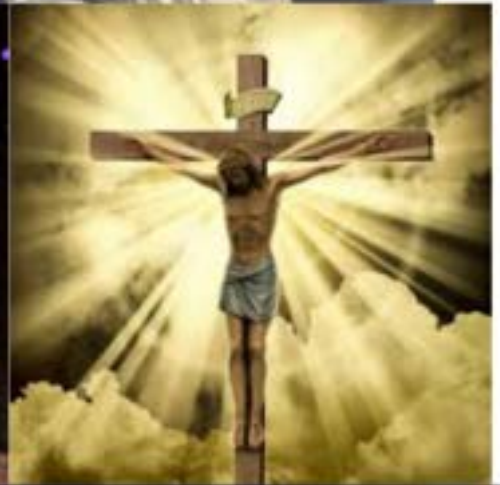

Visuals of Jared Leto

In Jared Leto's music video, Attack, satanic subliminal messages appear. The words "Lucifer," "Fame," and "Power," appear over Jared Leto's face. These messages appear for a split second.

In Jared Leto's music video Up in the Air, Jared Leto's triad symbol makes an appearance, along with an upside down pentagram, which traditionally symbolizes Satan and witchcraft. The triad symbol is similar to the alchemic symbol for air, and in Ephesians 21-2, Satan is referred to as the prince of the power of the air.

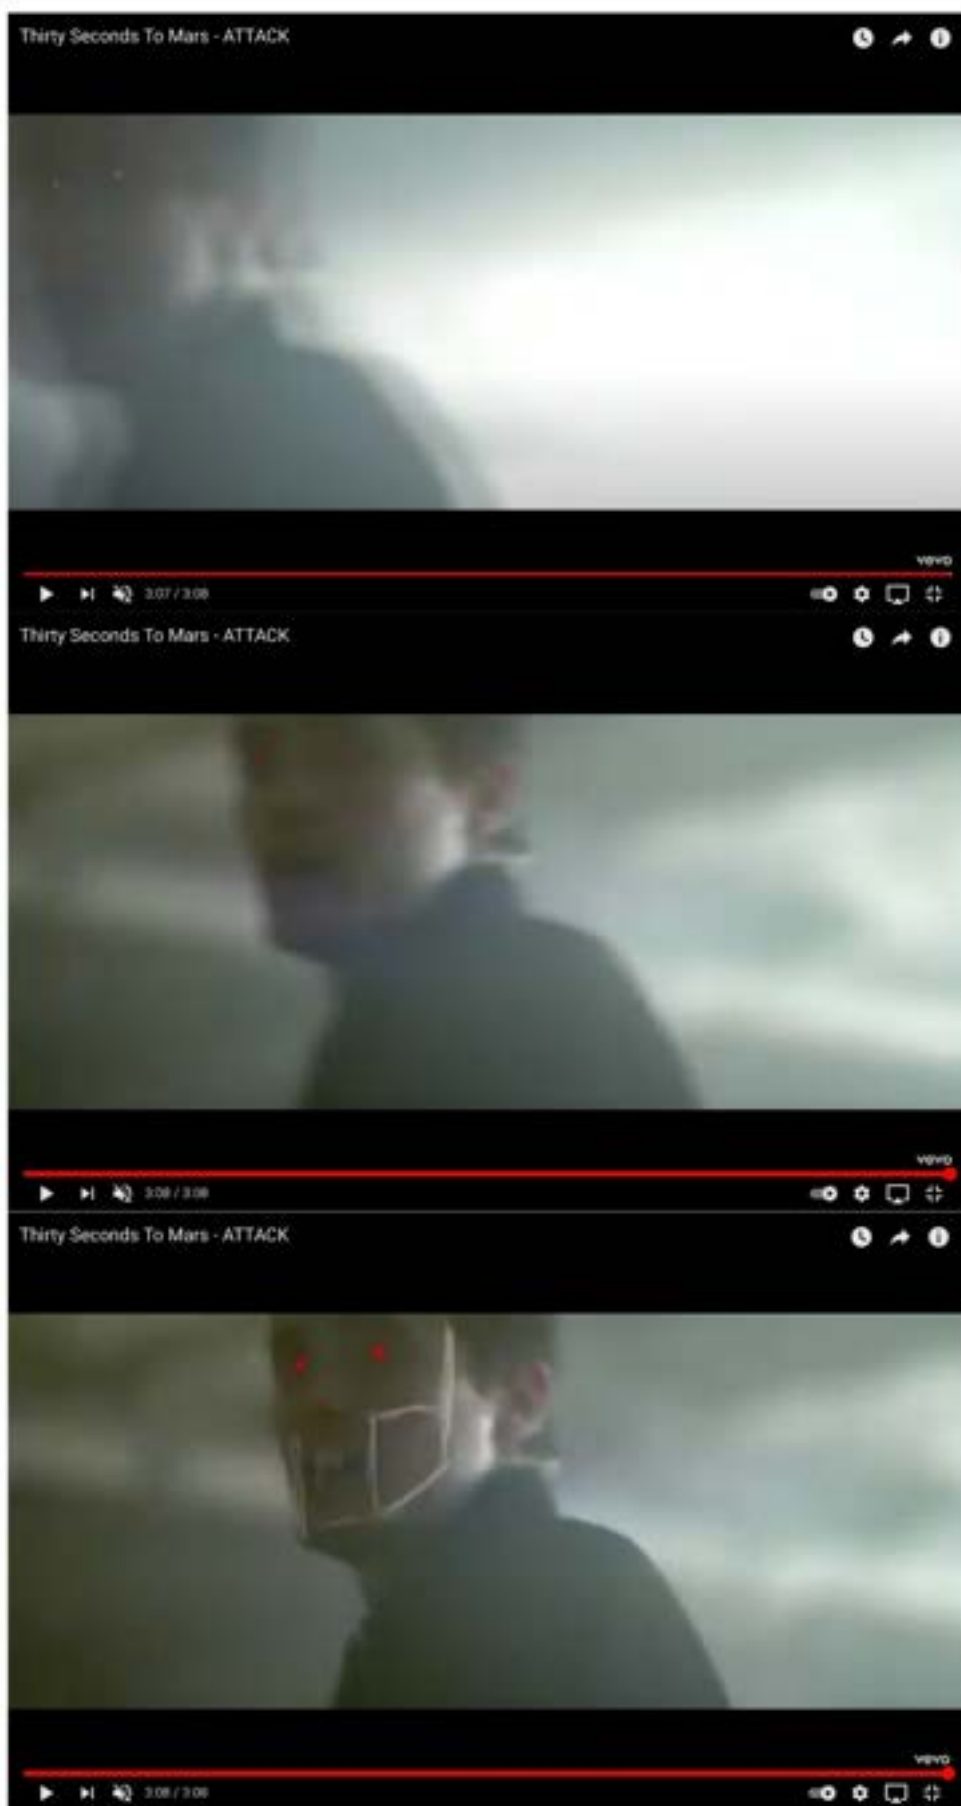

Ephesians 2:1-2 - New King James Version
 "And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins, in which you once walked according to the (a)course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience"

Directly above is a picture of the alchemic elements, the left-most triangle of the four is the symbol for air, similar to Jared Leto's symbol. Directly below is a picture of the Seal of Bael, also interchangeably referred to as Satan.

In Jared Leto's music video, Attack, Jared Leto's eyes glow red and his face turns into a demon. This lasts for a split second.

These images were allegedly installed into the music video by Jared Leto and/or by his direction. The images last only momentarily, as a subliminal message.

Jared Leto put in ominous messages in his music video Hail to the Victor

"it's the end of the world but it's going to be ok"

"time to rise up again"

"in heaven & hell we have the same last name"

Jared Leto's Evil Characters

In the Marvel universe, if Batman is like God or Jesus Christ trying to create order and peace and justice in the world, the Joker is like Satan, who tries making a mockery of Batman (Jesus), just how Jared Leto mocks Jesus and God with his music and merchandise and everything else he does. It is not surprising to see Jared Leto so attracted to the role of the Joker in the movie Suicide Squad and why he took the role as the Joker, for the personality of the Joker is his own. He also sent his film mates "objects of disgust." He admitted to sending used condoms and sex toys (anal beads) to the other cast members.

He also has played a number of other villains like Wallace in the film Bladerunner 2049, a sociopathic man with a god complex who manufactures artificial human beings. Leto plays a serial killer in The Little Things. Leto plays the murderer of John Lennon in Chapter 27. Leto played a criminal in Panic Room. Leto plays a crime lord in the film The Outsider. He also plays a villain/antihero Morbius who is a vampiric monster in the film Morbius. Jared Leto's acting career may be an outlet to release his fantasy of having power over people until he actually gets the power he wants in the real world.

Children Depicted in the Film & Evidence of Jared Leto Being a Pedophile and Spreading Pedophilic Propaganda

This is a scene from Jared Leto's music video "Hurricane" that he directed. The video is highly sexual and involves children and is propaganda for tempting people into sexual immorality and pedophilia. The 13+ minute video depicts sex, nudity, a scene of a person touching another person's anus, people in sadomasochistic attire, depravity, a man with surgically attached breasts (transgenderism, blurring of the sexes, and ungodly body modification), and bestiality (a scene of someone dressing up as a horse and having sex with someone; someone dressed as a rabbit; and a scene of a small rodent next to sexually explicit images, likely referring to what is called "gerbil stuffing", a rumored sexual practice of inserting small live animals into the human rectum). This video is sexual propaganda. It is an advertisement for indulging in sexual immorality under the guise of "art" and "a music video."

There are also scenes of children in this sexually charged video. In the film, Jared Leto seductively looks at children while images of Jared Leto having sex are juxtaposed and spliced and edited next to scenes of Jared Leto having sex with a woman. There is a scene where Jared is eyeing the children while he is having sex. Satan wants to tempt everyone into the most depraved things, including pedophilia. Satan wants everyone to be unholy like him, and this video is one of his ways of encouraging this behavior.

The images show Jared Leto in his film "Hurricane" staring at children while scenes of Jared Leto having sex appear on screen, implying that children are a part of Jared Leto's sex fantasy and that he is longing to bring them into his sexual practice. He has been accused many times of having sexual interactions with minors. And this is his way of sexually arousing the audience while having children appear on screen - his attempt to normalize pedophilia and trying to tempt people into feeling sexually aroused while around children. It is Satan's nature to try to tempt people and one way he does this is by subliminally indoctrinating people into having desires they may have not previously possessed.

In images 10 and 11, the children run away from Jared as if they are scared of him. Notice what the children are drawing on the ground. They are drawing lyrics to the song and Jared Leto's satanic symbology. Then notice that what the children were writing on the ground in images 6, 10, and 11 magically appears on Jared's body in images 15 and 16, as if the children are connected to Jared Leto and his body, as well as connected to his music and what it stands for, as if, even if they were to run away, they still cannot escape from Jared Leto. The words "Hurricane" "Burn" "Crash" and "Kill" are written on the ground by the children and are written on Jared's body, along with the mark of the beast, the triad symbol.

The images below are examples of what is in the video Hurricane, which also feature children in it. There are images in the film that are more explicit than these examples.

This is a scene where a man with breast implants shows his satanic body modification. It can be assume that Jared Leto's intent with having this in the film is to normalize this behavior, to make people admire this body image, and to ruin God's intended design for males and females.

(The scene appears at minute 11:56 in the film)

A REMINDER THAT SEVERAL WOMEN HAVE ACCUSED JARED LETO OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

We all remember how quickly we fell when Jared Leto failed to handle criticism for his stereotypical portrayal of a trans woman in Dallas Buyers Club. Now, with his upcoming role as the Joker in Suicide Squad, perhaps I should be worrying that his portrayal is a little too believable.

When you begin to read stories of encounters with Leto from groupies of his band Thirty Seconds to Mars, an alarming pattern emerges. It seems about half the stories state or imply in some aspect of the sexual encounter was non-consensual on the woman's (or girl's) several tell stories of him having sex and flirting with girls as young as 16-year-olds. I'll give some examples below, but first I'm putting out a trigger warning. There's some nasty stuff here.

Just to clarify, this is all based on his victims' word — he's never been taken to court over any of this. But there are a lot of women saying similar things, and it all adds up to a disturbing picture.

The most-quoted groupie story found in this now-famous Tumblr post, is too explicit to quote at length, but the gist is what the victim wrote at the end: "I felt as though I was being raped and not even a 'dry rape'. In his mind, it seemed like he thought he was fucking lighting me. It was very odd." The victim explains that he would not stop when she said she was having fun and that at one point she even attempted to stop him by biting him.

This post on a groupie forum collects stories about encounters with Leto and his bandmates. Here are some of the more alarming excerpts:

"I had sex with him when I was 16."

"I had all respect for Jared Leto after I read too many teenage girls who have been approached by Jared in order to sleep with them, he's just another 'rockstar' who lets his ego get to his head so he can take advantage of young girls. He even hit on my 15-year-old best friend. He's no better than Roman Polanski in my eyes."

From a long post by a woman who began having sex with Leto when she was seventeen: "I can say Jared was my first for many sexual experiences and I wholeheartedly regret it nowadays. He was very pushy into wanting me to do sexual acts with him and he was quite rough and forceful. Once he was unnecessarily rough and when I told him it but he didn't stop — he never did anything slowly or for my pleasure. . . . And NO, he never asked me if I was ever ok or comfortable with anything he wanted to do, simply because he is not the person to care. So having spent time with him I couldn't say he's into BDSM or that he's a sadist and enjoys hurting women. . . . It just will always feel whenever I see Jared Leto on tv or in a magazine, I just see the man who took advantage of my innocence and pressured me into things sexually that I'd never done and wasn't ready to do at that time."

Stories of his flirting with the inappropriately aged and choking non-consenting women abound. Why do we continue to give this man our attention and our praise when not only is he creepy, but there are many women for whom the sight of his face is a trigger for their worst memories?

The general unwillingness to acknowledge or believe Leto's victims and our continued celebration of the man are symptoms of our rape culture. Woody Allen continues to win Oscars despite having raped his own daughter; Roman Polanski is back to movie-making after fleeing justice in the face of a statutory rape conviction; Bill Murray and Sean Penn both abused their ex-wives. How many people you know are aware that John Lennon regularly beat women? Taken, male genitalia, and white skin should not be get-out-of-jail-free cards for abuse. This is a bloody reminder that some of our best loved celebrities are among the worst offenders in a system that uses violence and intimidation to maintain women's position as second class citizens.

Jared Leto sexually assaulted me in college. I have a witness. I slapped him for it, and he tried to punch me in the face. My friend stopped him. Everyone should know—he is a humble human and thinks he is a gift to womankind. He is a sexual predator and pure evil incarnate.

Horse shit. He didn't sexually assault anyone. It's some desperate little girls on the internet trying to get attention.

a very typical assumption of several women coming forth with the same stories about a beloved male actor. It's never "huh, maybe there's something here that needs examining," but rather, "haha, shut the fuck up, you're all desperate little girls trying to get attention."
'cause lord knows women finds lots of positive attention and acceptance when they accuse popular, rich, powerful men of sexual harassment and rape, and are ALWAYS believed, and NEVER painted as lying whores who asked for it... >_> that NEVER happen!
- Rachel Saran Zandieh 4 days ago
I know for a fact this is true. He was in town one time with his band and took my 16 year old friend on to his tour bus after the show that he INSISTED we went to. I'm not lying about this at all. In fact, I wish I was because after she told me the story about how he tried to make her mess around with him on the bus, I thought she was lying at first. It makes me ashamed that I doubted her at first. She insisted she was telling the truth and that he wasn't a nice guy at all. I believed her. She proceeded to tell me that after she REFUSED, he got really angry. I don't wanna add anymore to the story than what I know to be a fact, but this isn't a lie. Makes me SICK what these other ignorant people are saying. And really "Brenda Reid"? You're dumb.
- Sofiane 4 days ago
Thank you. It's not fanfiction. It's not an attempt to get attention. When you have enough women tell their story you have to think that maybe there's some truth in there. Victim blaming. I'm ashamed that women do this to each other. No one has come forward and filed a police report or officially accused him publicly. Why? Because of these kinds of comments right there. Because of negative attention, being dragged through the mud, told they are lying. Plus Leto has a lot of money for lawyers. I'm not saying they're all right but how about give them the benefit of the doubt? You have enough women (and there have been a lot) come forward with these stories you tend to wonder. Where there's smoke there's fire.

'GotG' Director James Gunn Has Again Suggested Jared Leto Preys On Underage Girls

By Ben Maltzen
Published on 12/20/18

In a testament to just how different the US defamation laws are to Australia's, Guardians of the Galaxy director James Gunn has, for at least the second time, intimated that Jared Leto has made sexual advances towards underage girls.

Gunn made the comment in a tweet today, replying to a tweet from Dylan Sprouse (one of the former stars of Disney's The Suite Life of Zack & Cody) that alleged that Leto has been creeping into the DMs of young models:

This is not the first time Gunn has said as such: back in June of 2016, the director reportedly did an "Ambien-fueled" live video on Periscope (since deleted) in which he made similar remarks. A 2016 Entertainment Weekly article from The Wrap only vaguely says that he "blasted details about his sex life and about stars like Jared Leto", but social media and tabloid gossips from around the time specifically mention Gunn saying that "Jared Leto sleeps with underage girls".

Gunn deleted the video and apologized in an Instagram post to "all of you around the world who saw my Ambien-fueled Periscope session last night at 3 a.m.", but didn't specifically retract any remarks he said about Leto.

A tweet made in 2012 seems to indicate that Gunn has not held a positive opinion of Leto's conduct for quite some time:

Driving home from Vegas trading stories about what a dick Jared Leto is.

— James Gunn (@JamesGunn) July 1, 2012

Evangeline Van Houten, a pop culture writer for media criticism site Contemplator, published an article in July of that year titled Another Candy? A Reminder That Several Women Have Accused Jared Leto Of Sexual Assault, which collected several quite confronting allegations of sexual misconduct from fans of 30 Seconds to Mars. A number of women described having sex with Leto when as young as 15 and a number of the allegations suggest Leto acted despite a lack of consent or continued even when asked to stop — from one account:

He was very pushy into coaxing me to do sexual acts with him and he was quite rough and forceful. Once he was unnecessarily rough and when I told him if hurt he didn't stop — he never did anything slowly or for my pleasure ... And NO, he never asked me if I was ever ok or comfortable with anything he wanted to do, simply because he is not the person to care.

At time of writing, Gunn has made no further comment and Leto has not responded.

Claims About Jared Leto Preying on Underage Women Have Resurfaced Yet Again & These Have Been Circulating For Over 20 Years

Content warning: sexual violence

There's just some Twitterdome tension that we could never foresee, like the Twitter drama between Dylan Sprouse, James Gunn and Jared Leto. While tweet-driven arguments might not seem productive, this Twitter squabble may have exhumed some old sexual assault allegations against Jared Leto.

Sexual Assault News Article: Claims About Jared Leto Preying on Underage women have been Circulating for Over 20 Years

There's just some Twitterdome tension that we could never foresee, like the Twitter drama between Dylan Sprouse, James Gunn and Jared Leto. While tweet-driven arguments might not seem productive, this Twitter squabble may have exhumed some old sexual assault allegations against Jared Leto.

Cosmopolitan reports that last week, Dylan Sprouse tweeted a late-night message accusing Jared Leto of basically being a resident creep. Although DMing legal young women isn't a crime in itself, Sprouse's tweet prompted other celebrities to speak out about Leto. Director James Gunn responded to Sprouse's initial tweet by saying, "He starts at 18 on the Internet?"

Yikes! Gunn's tweet implies a more disturbing accusation than that of Sprouse. Because Gunn notes that Leto allegedly hits on of-age women on the internet, Gunn appears to be alleging that Leto comes on to underage girls IRL.

After Gunn tweeted out these accusations, another Twitter user accused the director of defamation of character. "If I was @JaredLeto I'd be contacting my lawyers for libel," the user writes. Gunn could be vulnerable to a credible lawsuit via Leto's legal team. According to Slate, accusations published on social media platforms aren't immune to defamation lawsuits. However, it's important that we listen (or read) Gunn's concerns about Leto's apparently questionable behavior—because we should take accusations about sexual crimes seriously, regardless of who they involve.

If I was @JaredLeto I'd be contacting my lawyers for libel.
— Stemot (@Stemot1978) May 16, 2018

Nevertheless, the same user clarifies why he believes Gunn is slandering Leto's notoriously not-so-stellar reputation. "It's from Reddit fan fiction. Gunn is treating it as a real accusation. If you have any real evidence I'd love to hear it," the user adds. It's from reddit fan fiction. Gunn is treating it as a real accusation. If you have any real evidence I'd love to hear it.
— Stemot (@Stemot1978) May 16, 2018

The fan fiction that this user mentions refers to a ubiquitous fan fiction about how two women, "Jennifer" and "Megan," essentially had a threesome with Leto after 30 Seconds to Mars played a gig in an obscure college bar.

Though this fan fiction, with its realistic nature of the narrative, resurfaced numerous times in different forums, by different people, it has been notoriously debunked as a fictional tale. And while some fan fictions can read as eerily realistic fantasies, and there is an off chance that Gunn could be duped by these dubiously non-fictitious accounts of fiction, there are several women who have accused Leto of pedophilia and sexual assault beyond that story.

Prior to the creation and consequential rebirths of this gruesome Leto-inspired fan fiction, in 2005 an anonymous source told the New York Post that Leto allegedly has an affinity for younger women and would often text underage girls. "He's a serial texter. He is constantly texting these 16- and 17-year-old girls. It's really kind of creepy," the source said.

Regardless, this claim isn't the only account of recrimination against Leto. Albeit the infamous Leto fan fiction from the early 2010s might have skewed the lines between fiction and non-fiction, the fan fiction did inspire some former fans to recount their alleged sexual experiences with Leto. However, not all of these intimate allegations were consensual.

In a since-deleted message board about rape allegations against Leto specifically, which was recovered by a different message board, an anonymous source alleged Leto molested her. In her claim, the woman notes that she was only 17 at the time, which could make her underage and therefore legally unable to consent to any sexual acts with a legal adult (depending on where in the United States this happened, of course).

In the user's comment, she writes, "I hooked up with him several years ago and I was about 4 months over 17." The age of consent in the United States is an ever-changing, problematic gray area in general. This woman's comment was published in 2010 and there are no discerning details about where this alleged sexual crime took place, which can make it improbable to decipher if this claim could be considered statutory rape. Although we can't definitively determine where this alleged incident took place, based on the woman's accusations, she said she didn't consent to every sexual act.

Though the commenter begins her post with claims that Leto had sex with her when she might have been under the age of consent, she continues, "I think he got pleasure out of hurting me, in retrospect, but I was too young and didn't know that then.... I would tell him to slow down or to change position to ease the pain a little. After that, I'd get attitude."

(While pain can be a kink for some people, it's important that all parties consent to every act and feel comfortable enough to back out of any sexual or romantic act, without feeling vilified for doing so. However, the user accuses Leto of allegedly giving her "attitude" when she would refuse consent. Intimidation and not listening to a partner during sex and any form of intimidation or coercion can still be considered sexual assault or harassment, depending on the situation, because it undermines your right over your own body.)

Despite her alleged consent, the user claims that she still didn't feel comfortable with these alleged sexual acts. RAINN notes that even after copulation, sexual assault survivors can seek legal help, because being convinced to consent to any sexual act is still considered rape, and if a sexual encounter felt like rape, then it's considered rape.

Regardless, this woman's story is only one of many prevailing claims against Leto. In 2013, another user published a lengthy post about a formidably similar scenario with Leto. In her post, the woman accused Leto of pedophilia.

Echoing the aforementioned claims, another user's accusations hold some striking similarities: "I met [Leto] when I was 17 (a naive innocent girl) on one of his movie sets in Brooklyn, when he was turning 34," the user claims. Later in her post, she details she would often meet Leto at hotels near Gramercy Park in New York. Though 17 is the official age of consent in New York, the user claims that Leto told her to verbally tell him that she was 14 or 15.

The commenter adds, "[Leto] was very pushy into coercing me to do sexual acts with him and he was quite rough and forceful."

According to the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) Office on Women's Health (OWH), sexual coercion can include physical and non-physical tactics to convince a person into sexual activities that they wouldn't otherwise consent to. Likewise, the OWH notes that sexual coercion also encompasses being repeatedly asked to take part in a sexual activity. Sexual coercion also includes deceitful promises that the abuser will stop if the victim is uncomfortable; however, the abuser likely won't honor these claims. The Guardian reports that survivors of sexual coercion are often oblivious to this crime, which can severely alter a person's relationship with sex itself. Beyond these latent emotional and mental effects, sexual coercion infringes on a person's consent and trust.

The user alleges that this sexual assault wasn't a singular event. She claims that Leto continued to have often nonconsensual intercourse with her from the time she was 17 to the time she was 21. Nevertheless, his alleged actions have an ever-present impact on her.

"I'm 26 now and I learned from it, I don't ever want to be treated like that by any man. It just will always hurt whenever I see [Leto] on tv or in a magazine, I just see the man who took advantage of my innocence and pressured me into things sexually that I'd never done and wasn't ready to do at that time," the user writes.

Regardless, Leto isn't new to controversy. Gizmodo reported that Leto attempted to debunk rumors that he gifted used condoms to his Suicide Squad co-stars. Despite the fact that Leto himself said that he gave used condoms to his fellow cast members, Leto told Entertainment Weekly that his previous statements were a joke.

It's still debatable whether or not Leto actually gave his co-stars pre-used latex gifts; however, none of that affirms any of the multiple sexual assault claims against him.

In a Reddit thread about Leto's performance in Suicide Squad, comments quickly divulged into the actor's behavior on and off set. Yet, one commenter writes, "I have a cousin who goes to an expensive private high school in LA. One of her friends is the daughter of a certain famous model from the 80's/90's and has been having sex with Jared Leto as a 13/14 year old." Regardless of inconsistent consent laws in the U.S., this claim qualifies as statutory rape in any state.

Though the commenter retells their cousin's narrative, the user notes:

"He's made her get an app that deletes messages after they're seen. And he knows she's under 18 because one of her friends took a picture of a message he sent her (before it was deleted) that said "can you come over tonight" and she said "no my parents are home". Feel free to call bullshit but I have a feeling someone will find out soon enough and he's going to be in deep shit..."

There are countless similar accusations about how Jared Leto has coerced women into copulation, groomed underage women, and convinced consenting women into age or teen-play.

While these claims have been omnipresent in online forums for the last 20 years, Dylan Sprouse and James Gunn have helped redirect necessary scrutiny to these serious allegations. However, it's a bit conspicuous that these women have been telling their stories for years, yet we haven't listened nor have we taken their claims seriously—until Sprouse and Gunn indirectly tweeted about them.

Her Campus has reached out to these women who have shared their allegations.

There are many pedophile sexual assault allegations against Jared Leto regarding underage girls, but Jared Leto is attracted to males as well. He had a relationship with actor Colin Farrell, and Robert Arquette, an actor, who later considered his gender to be female, may be more known as Alexis Arquette. This added information helps the context of why Jared Leto is staring at a small boy with his shirt off in his pornographic film "Hurricane". There are also two other children Jared is staring at in the film, another boy and a girl. The more we learn about Jared Leto, the more we understand his sexual perversions and how he would wish to normalize these perversions.

Transgender actress Alexis Arquette has sensationally claimed that she once slept with Jared Leto.

During an interview with Frontiers LA's Jackie Beat earlier this month, the 45-year-old - who was born Robert before making the transition from male to female some 13 years ago - was asked to 'spill a secret'.

To understand Jared Leto and his mindset, understand the people he spends time with and who is attracted to and admires. Jared likes Terry Richardson; a longtime sex offender, someone who had someone photograph him having sex with an animal (a sheep) (or at least pretending to); Terry Richardson is a supporter of Mentors, a music band that advocates for raping women, raping children, sexual assault, and degrading women to sex objects; Terry is an unrepentant sex offender; Terry Richardson shamelessly creates pornography under the guise of "art" and "photography" and "fashion". Terry Richardson is evil and the Antichrist is attracted to Terry's evil, this is why they are friends. Satan is also attracted to people who he can control, and Satan can control those people who are evil and who are lost in their temptations.

Terry Richardson is Jared Leto's best friend. Besides Jared Leto's brother Shannon Leto, there is no one else Jared Leto is photographed next to more than Terry Richardson. Photos of Jared and Terry hanging out and spending time together can be found online that date from the year 2006. They have had a friendship that has lasted at least 15 years.

Terry and Jared think the same way. They have the same depraved predatory nature and lack of moral values.

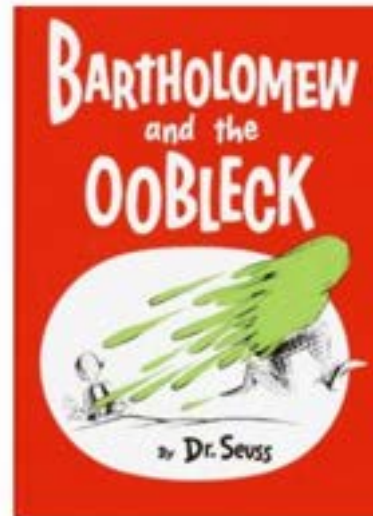

Terry Richardson is just less discrete on how depraved he is and more known to be depraved, but they are cut from the same cloth. If anything, Satan, Jared Leto, is worse than Terry or anyone else on Earth, Jared is simply bottling up and trying to contain his evil and his most evil urges until he has power over the world and the social freedom to do what he wants without the world restraining him and giving him consequences for his actions.

By analyzing the nature of Jared Leto's closest friend Terry Richardson, we can look into the nature and the mind and soul (or lack thereof) of Jared Leto.

Terry Richardson and Jared Leto are best friends and have been for years. It is no surprise that their friendship is hinged on their sexual depravity.

Jared Leto satanically identifies as "Bartholomew Cubbins"

Satan identifies with the character Bartholomew Cubbins

Bartholomew Cubbins is a pseudonym Jared Leto credits himself as in some of his video directing work (like the music videos "The Kill", "From Yesterday", "A Beautiful Lie", etc.). Jared Leto released a compilation of his music video directorial work under "Bartholomew Cubbins 2006-2014".

Jared Leto designs shirts and sweatshirts that have the phrase "WHO THE F#%K IS BARTHOLOMEW CUBBINS?" printed on it.

Bartholomew Cubbins is a Dr. Seuss character in the book The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins. It makes sense why the Antichrist would identify with Bartholomew Cubbins.

The story is about a boy who lives in a kingdom under the rule of a king. In this world it is customary to take off one's hat in the presence of the king. The boy Bartholomew Cubbins takes off his hat but as he does, another hat appears on his head. The king becomes angry with Bartholomew for having another hat on his head. So Bartholomew takes off that hat, but another hat appears on his head, and Bartholomew continues taking off his hats while continuing to discover more hats underneath his hats. To quote an article, Bartholomew Cubbins "is a young boy who is wiser than the adults around him", and Satan, Jared Leto, sees himself as smarter than everyone else and sees God as a silly king like the king in the Dr. Seuss book The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins and Jared Leto identifies as Bartholomew Cubbins because of his tense relationship with God, and the Antichrist's desire to be God and "king" himself.

Yet, it is not without its own irony that Satan himself would only find himself to be a silly arrogant king like the silly king in the book. Satan isn't without his gratuitous hypocrisy, isn't he?

Note how often Jared Leto pretends he's the hero in some sort of story in his mind, as if he is role playing like he is the main character in everyone's life. He calls himself Bartholomew Cubbins, the hero who "inadvertently humiliates the selfish king and brings him to humility and repentance" and he often dresses as Jesus, God in the flesh, and the purest soul to ever walk on this Earth - notice a pattern here? Jared Leto is impersonating the identities of heroes and, just as Satan does, he impersonates an angel of light.

Satan is false light.

2 Corinthians 11:14 - "And no wonder, for Satan himself masquerades as an angel of light."

Bartholomew Cubbins is a fictional page and the hero of two children's books by Dr. Seuss: The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins (1938) and Bartholomew and the Oobleck (1949). Besides the two books about him—and the stage adaptations of them—Bartholomew Cubbins also appears as a character in the TV show The Hubble World of Dr. Seuss. Seuss's only film, The 6,000 Fingers of Dr. T., has a main character named Bartholomew Cubbins who, like his namesake, is a young boy who is wiser than the adults around him.

Claim of religious significance

Robert L. Short (1932 – July 6, 2009), in his book The Parables of Dr. Seuss, points out that Bartholomew shares a name with one of the apostles of Jesus. In Illuminat writings he is one of several archangels left on Earth to battle in the apocalypse. Bartholomew Cubbins presses the silly King Derwin of the Kingdom of Didd into humility and repentance, encouraging the king to apologize for his harmful actions.

In the context of this article "Bartholomew Cubbins" is the Antichrist

This Wikipedia posting dating from 2011 discusses "Bartholomew Cubbins" being an archangel "left on Earth to battle in the apocalypse", according to "Illuminati writings", the article states. This article is referring to Jared Leto - Jared Leto is "Bartholomew Cubbins" and as this article states, Bartholomew Cubbins is one of the angels fighting during the apocalypse - this angel is Satan, who is Jared Leto.

"Illuminati" is a codeword that can loosely be defined as "the highest order and network of evil people in the world who are working in the shadows to control the world for selfish and sinister reasons", so inherently, whoever is the Antichrist would be considered the "illuminati" since he inherently would be the highest ranking person of evil in the world.

It would come to know surprise that the Satanic order would be another name for "the illuminati" with the Antichrist as the "archangel" leading this Satanic order.

A common definition of "archangel" is "a high ranking angel". Another translation of "archangel" is an "angel who leads the rest of the group", "the leader", so arguably, Satan, the Antichrist, would be an archangel and "the "leader" and "lead angel", who is leading his anti-God followers into war with God. And since this article is referring to "Bartholomew Cubbins" as an archangel "left on Earth to battle in the apocalypse", inherently this could only be referring to Jared Leto.

[Source: (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bartholomew_Cubbdiscovered)]

I discovered this article after God told me Jared Leto is the Antichrist while researching "Bartholomew Cubbins."

Jared Leto leaves many clues that he is Satan, in his clothing line, his music videos, his album artwork, how he dresses like a stereotypical version of Jesus in public, he even has a lyric in one of his songs, "I swear to God I'm the Devil - it's almost as if he wants to be found - and perhaps he does in a way. It's likely that in order for him to find loyal subjects who would do his bidding, he would first have to leave clues for people to find out who he is, and it is a possibility that this wikipedia article is a way to point his most dedicated fanbase in his direction and reveal to them his true identity to test whether those who understand can be in his inner circle.

And there may be more than one reason why he is doing this. It is also likely that Leto is sadistic and enjoys toying with people, like how the notorious serial killer The Zodiac Killer sent taunting letters to the FBI about his identity, Jared Leto may be doing the same with his message, about "Who is Bartholomew Cubbins?" and his music lyric in the Great Wide Open, "I swear to God I'm the Devil."

Background

In 2006, lead vocalist Jared Leto began to direct music videos for Thirty Seconds to Mars, with the first being "The Kill". At a press release, he stated that an "insanely obnoxious Danish albino" named Bartholomew Cubbins directed the video.^[1] He later explained his decision to direct with a pseudonym saying, "I really wanted people to be able to enjoy and experience the video without having any more preconceived notions or distractions, and just to let it be what it was. It wasn't important for me to lay claim to it in that way."^[2] Bartholomew Cubbins is a recurring character in the Dr. Seuss universe and one of Leto's favorite characters created by the writer.^[3] The short film received a largely positive response and numerous accolades, including an MTV Video Music Award.^[4] The same year, Leto directed the short film for "From Yesterday", filmed in the Forbidden City, it became the first ever American music video shot in the People's Republic of China in its entirety.^[5] His next short film was "A Beautiful Lie" (2008). Although he directed it under the pseudonym of Angakok Pansop, his alter ego Bartholomew Cubbins received a "special thanks" credit. The music video was filmed 200 miles north of the Arctic Circle in Greenland, with Leto working with the Natural Resources Defense Council to develop strategies that would minimize fuel consumption on the shoot.^[6] Upon release, "A Beautiful Lie" was met with widespread critical acclaim, resulting in various accolades, including the MTV Europe Music Award for Best Video.^[7] Proceeds from the video's sales benefited the Natural Resources Defense Council.^[8]

The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

For the music video director named Bartholomew Cubbins, see Jared Leto.

The 500 Hats of Bartholomew Cubbins is a children's book, written and illustrated by Theodor Geisel under the pen name Dr. Seuss and published by Vanguard Press in 1938. Unlike the majority of Geisel's books, it is written in prose rather than rhyming and metered verse. Geisel, who collected hats, got the idea for the story on a commuter train from New York to New England while he was sitting behind a businessman wearing a hat; the passenger was so stiff and formal that Geisel idly wondered what would happen if he took the man's hat and threw it out the window. Geisel concluded that the man was so "stuffy" that he would just grow a new one.^[1]

The characters of Bartholomew and King Derwin returned a decade later in Bartholomew and the Cuckoo.

Plot summary

Set in feudal times, the story begins in the Kingdom of Didd. Young peasant, Bartholomew Cubbins lives on the outskirts of the kingdom with his family. He wears a simple red hat with a single white feather that has remained within the family for generations. One day, Bartholomew is sent into the town to sell some berries, when he comes across King Derwin riding through a street. As per law, one is supposed to remove his or her hat when the king passes by, but Bartholomew apparently does not follow the rule, despite having a hat in his hand and is ordered to remove the hat on his head. Bartholomew does so, but another hat mysteriously appears when he attempts to remove this one, yet another one appears. For unknown reasons, whenever Bartholomew removes one hat, another one appears on his head.

The young boy is taken to the castle where numerous people attempt to remove the hat from Bartholomew's head, but all attempts end in failure. The royal hatter runs away in terror, the King's young nephew fails to shoot the hat off with arrows, a great townsman similarly fails with a long bow, Wizards attempt to curse the hat away but claim their spell would only work in "ten Short Years". The King, exasperated by all the attempts, sends Bartholomew to be executed, but once again the laws get in the way: A person cannot be executed by the Executioner with his or her hat on.

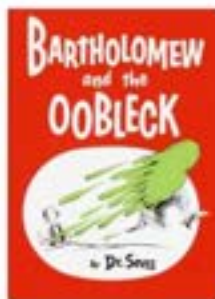

The King's nephew suggests throwing Bartholomew from the highest tower as a punishment. The King, while mildly upset by the idea, agrees. Bartholomew begins to push his hats off rapidly as they climb the tower. As this continues, the hats begin to grow in extravagance and beauty from the 451st hat onwards. The 451st hat has two feathers, while the 452nd hat has three and the 453rd hat has three feathers and a small gem and so on. Ultimately the 500th hat, is revealed as the greatest, studded with massive gems, plumes of feathers from rare birds and gilding, although Bartholomew seems unaware of the fact. The king is stunned by the beauty of the hat, but the nephew is more interested than before at the sight of it. He tries to push Bartholomew off the tower, against the King's wishes which results in him being spanned as a punishment. King Derwin grants Bartholomew a reprieve, requesting for all 500 hats in exchange for 500 gold coins. Bartholomew agrees and is sent home with his massive reward, while the King keeps all of the hats in a massive shed to admire for years to come. The story ends with the narrator admitting that no one knows or ever knew what caused this strange event, but it is more than likely that it will never happen again.

Bartholomew and the Oobleck

The character Bartholomew Cubbins is revisited by Dr. Seuss in his book Bartholomew and the Oobleck. The story is about Bartholomew Cubbins and as an Wikipedia article sums it up as, "It follows the adventures of a young boy named Bartholomew Cubbins, who must rescue his kingdom from a sticky green substance called "oobleck." So it's a story about a character's heroic quest to save the world - how noble.

Reading on, the Wikipedia article gives a more in-depth description of the plot, which will be placed below, but before reading further, pause and reflect, do not be tricked by the devil's lies. Be wise, beware of Satan's deception.

Note that even though the Antichrist, Jared Leto, self-proclaims to identify with Bartholomew Cubbins, as if he is some sort of hero on a "noble and courageous quest to save the world against the tyranny of God," in reality, the situation is in reverse - notice how Satan twists and falsifies the truth constantly to portray himself as righteous and "the light of the world." To be accurate, if we are relating this Dr. Seuss story to our reality, the arrogant king is actually Satan, Jared Leto, not Bartholomew Cubbins.

Satan creates problems where there are none - whereas God creates solutions to problems no one else can solve.

Satan is never satisfied with anything - whereas God is satisfied with excellence.

Satan is power hungry, unjust, and abuses his power.

God can create a kingdom of peace and prosperity, and Satan is too obsessed with being the center of attention and being worshipped and being treated like he is God.

"The book opens with an explanation of how people in the Kingdom of Didd still talk about "The year the King got angry with the sky," and how Bartholomew Cubbins, King Derwin's page boy, saved the kingdom. Throughout the year, Bartholomew sees the king getting angry at rain in spring, sun in summer, fog in autumn, and snow in winter because he wants something new to come down from the sky. The king gets the idea that he can rule the sky, and he orders Bartholomew to summon the Royal Magicians from their "musty hole beneath the dungeon." When the king expresses his wish, the magicians announce that they can make oobleck, which will not look anything at all like the regular weather. That evening, the magicians make that substance at their mystic mountain Neeka-tave, and release it into the air.

Next morning, Bartholomew sees droplets of a strange green substance falling from the sky: the oobleck has arrived. When the King sees it, he is overjoyed. He declares the day a holiday and orders Bartholomew to tell the Royal Bell Ringer to announce the occasion. The bell ringer tries to oblige, but the bell will not ring: the oobleck is falling harder and turns out to be both gelatinous and adhesive, and it has gurred up the bell. When Bartholomew sees a mother bird trapped in her nest by the oobleck, and a cow trapped in the oobleck, he makes the decision to warn the kingdom.

The Royal Trumpeter tries to sound the alarm, but oobleck gets into the trumpet and the trumpeter gets his hand stuck trying to remove it. Bartholomew tells the Captain of the Guard to warn the kingdom, but the captain, determined to prove that he's not afraid of the oobleck, scoops some up with his sword and eats it, only to get his mouth stuck and breathe out green bubbles. Bartholomew decides to warn the kingdom himself and rushes to the Royal Stables for a horse, but, perhaps predictably, all the horses have been covered and immobilized by oobleck.

In the throne room, the king, now swathed in oobleck, orders Bartholomew to summon the magicians to stop the storm, but Bartholomew delivers the bad news that "their cave on Mountain Neeka-tave is buried deep in oobleck." The king gets the idea to use the magicians' magic words ("Shuffle Duffle Muzzle Muff...") to stop the oobleck, but he cannot remember the whole incantation, and, in any case, he is not a magician.

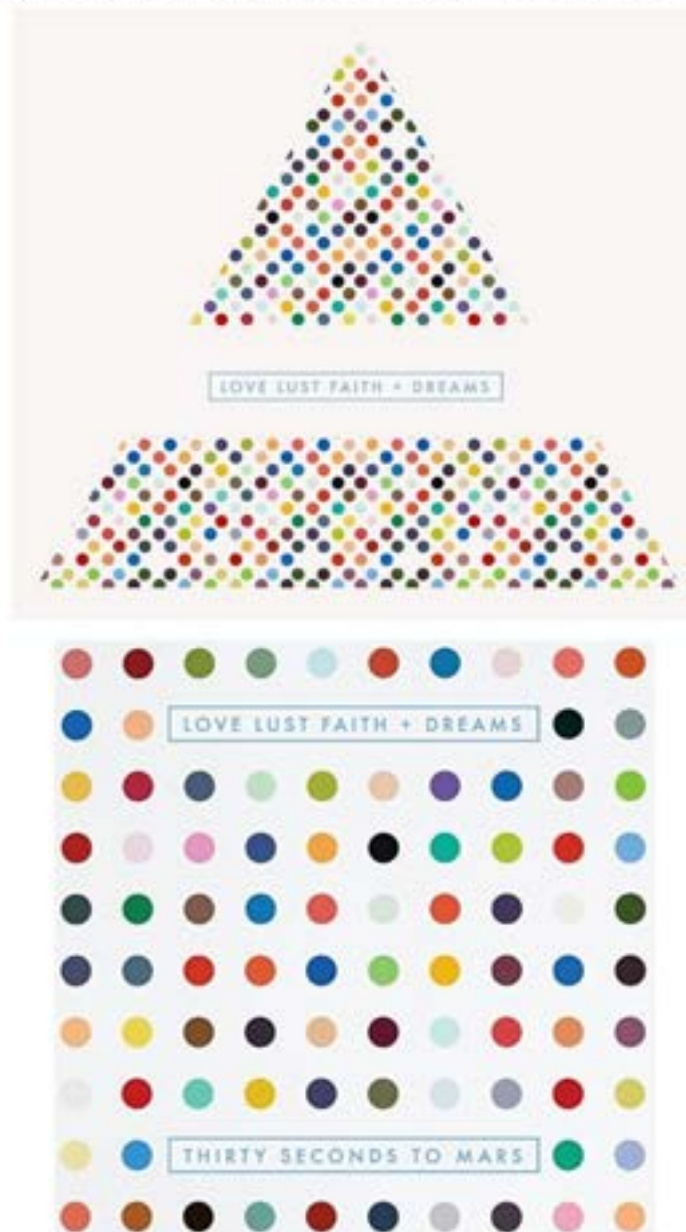

Bartholomew finally gets the courage to reprimand the king for making such a foolish wish, and he tells him to use simple words, like "I'm sorry," instead of magic words.

Immediately after the king says those simple words, the oobleck storm abates and the sun melts away all the green slime, freeing everybody. After the oobleck is gone, Bartholomew takes the king to the bell tower. The king rings the bell proclaiming the day a holiday, dedicated not to oobleck, but to rain, sun, fog, and snow, the four things that have always, and should always, come down from the sky."

[Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bartholomew_and_the_Oobleck]

Notice how the king in this story is "not a magician" and cannot do real magic. Just how Satan is not really God and does not have God's powers, this character is delusional in overestimating his intellect, judgement, and psychic power over nature. Satan is delusional in the same way. Bartholomew reprimands the king for "making such a foolish wish" and Bartholomew tells the king "to use simple words, like "I'm sorry," instead of "magic words," just how God is going to reprimand Satan for making such a foolish wish to take over the world and think that he is holier than God and could create a greater world and civilization than God could. God will tell Satan and all who rebel to use simple words, like "I'm sorry" and humble themselves and repent for their sins to make the world a better place - notice how in the story, comparatively, Bartholomew Cubbins morals and temperament is similar to God and King Derwin's morals and temperament similar Satan, even though Jared Leto has chosen to publicly identify as Bartholomew Cubbins instead of who he actually represents, the foolish King Derwin. Leto has warped his mind and led to himself into believing he is a victim and a hero who is championing a revolution toward a better future, but in reality he is someone who is not satisfied with a perfect world that God creates. Leto is someone who gets "angry at rain in spring, sun in summer, fog in autumn, and snow in winter because he wants something new to come down from the sky". In the end, Jared Leto will not repent for his ways like King Derwin.

Jared Leto twists the Christian saying "Love Hope, Faith" into "Love, Lust, Faith" with his album Love, Lust, Faith, and Dreams. He inserts the temptation of "lust" in this saying to poison people's mind's with temptation. And the "love" and "faith" elements in the phrase are not for having love and faith in God, but the implication is to love Jared Leto and to have faith in him. Jared Leto is trying to replace God in people's live's with himself, Jared Leto, and with the temptation of lust. You can further see his desire to replace God in people's lives by viewing his merchandise and his music lyrics.

This is a photo of Jared and one of the shirts he sells. The shirt has an angel holding Jared's satanic Mark of the Beast symbol, a Christian cross that is defaced by his triad symbol.

Jared is "the angel of darkness," Satan. Notice the connections in all of his symbolism. It is likely Jared thinks people are too clueless to notice the obvious messages he is projecting into the world.

Jared Leto's obsession with making anti-Christ and anti-God clothing and merchandise

Jared Leto places this symbol, the defaced Christian cross, on much of his merchandise. The symbol means "anti-Christ."

Jared Leto made a shirt that says "What Would Jared Do?" instead of the commonly used phrase, "What would Jesus do?"

By mixing the word "God" with other things that are dirty, like "sex," "drugs," and "alcohol," and arbitrary things like "sugar" and "bacon," Jared is mocking and belittling the importance of God. Placing "God" next to these other things like this, it's implying that God is just as miscellaneous as these other things. And in fine print the shirt says "Five American Fixations," as if God is a vice like these other things, as if this is the "innocent reason" why Jared made this shirt, as if he picked these names blindly from a hat and was not trying to be controversial at all

Jared Leto is creating products to disrespect God and normalize a cultural movement to be flippant to God

Jared creates these shirts to lower people's sense of respect and perception of God. This is his way of attempting to equate God to everyday items and people.

By mixing the word "Jesus" with other names like "Elvis," "Kanye," "Kylie," "Oprah," and "Lebron," Jared is again mocking and belittling the importance of Jesus. Placing "Jesus" next to these other name like this is implying that Jesus is at the same level of importance as any of these people. "Six American Names", is written in fine print underneath these names, as if this is the "innocent reason" why Jared made this shirt, as if he picked these names blindly from a hat and was not trying to be controversial at all.

This t-shirt is problematic for a many reasons. One one side of the shirt it has a photo of Jared Leto's cult followers dressed up in white, where it has, "YOU WOULDN'T UNDERSTAND", written on it, to ward off criticism of people criticizing the cult and to brainwash his followers into have the response ready of, "You wouldn't understand," to deflect any negative thought of Jared Leto and his cult - this way Jared has more control over their minds and prevents his cult followers for thinking for themselves and leaving his dangerous cult. On the other side of the shirt is the word "family" written on it, to suggest that his followers are his family. This is a tactic cults use to lure vulnerable people who are searching for a group of people to belong ot and feel like they have a family and that they are cared for and protected. This shirt preys upon vulnerable people.

This is another instance where Jared Leto is grooming his cult. Jared Leto trains his followers by saying phrases or putting them on his merchandise which makes the saying trendy to his followers. Many people who criticize the cult, and Jared Leto, many followers have already been trained to respond with saying, "You wouldn't understand," which is motto that Jared Leto uses on his merchandise. This prevents Leto's devotees from thinking for themselves and thinking about reasonable questions about the motives of Jared Leto that would uncover his sinister motives. They are simply trained to say, "You wouldn't understand," to anyone who questions the cult, even when they themselves do not understand what they are pretending to understand.

Allegations that Jared Leto committed sexual assault

Jared Leto has many pedophilia-related sexual assault allegations against him, and he is putting children in his pornographic video. This is likely a multi-reasoned attempt to normalize pedophilia and to convert people to sinful ways so people will follow him. This also lures people who are already pedophiles and deviant people to Jared to support him.

All I think about when I see him now are the stories about him being sexually violent.

 La Pendeja → KimberJem · 3 months ago
He banged my friend's little sister when she was 16/17 (a junior in high school) and he was 27/28. Men that age chasing after high school girls gross me out to no end. So I've always thought he was a piece of shit.

 KimberJem → La Pendeja · 3 months ago
Yeah very gross. I'm surprised none of the #metoo stuff came for him.

 Satydog · 8 months ago
Probably for the best. I predict the Jared stories come out next. Back in the 90s he tried to pick up a friend of mine at the bus stop using a fake name, she was 17 and told him so and he still tried to get her in his car.

 Sara → Satydog · 8 months ago
I've known a groupie of his group that had lot of stories about him trying to pick up underage blond and skinny girls from his concerts.

He's a good actor and I will always love requiem for a dream, but I met him at a party at 17 and he made me very uncomfortable, so I don't think the rumours are uncalled for.

Celebrities call Jared Leto out on his sexually predatory behavior

A lot of publicity of Jared Leto's sexual predatory behavior went viral when two celebrities, an actor, Dylan Sprouse, and a film director, James Gunn, called Jared Leto out.

Here's what went down: Dylan Sprouse — who took a brief hiatus from the Hollywood spotlight after he and his twin Cole wrapped up The Suite Life On Deck back in 2011 — unexpectedly threw shade at actor Jared Leto on Twitter in the wee morning hours of Wednesday, May 16. But we're not talking about some subtle words, here. Sprouse called out Leto for his reported womanizing ways, asking him what his "success rate" is after allegedly sliding into young women models' DMs. He wrote, Yo @JaredLeto now that you've slid into the dm's of every female model aged 18-25, what would you say your success rate is?

And, while Leto hasn't responded back to the tweets just yet, actor James Gunn did, quipping, "He starts at 18 on the internet?"

Dylan was being nice with that age range or maybe because of legalities he couldn't accuse Leto of sleeping with minors, which he does. My friend was one of them. He's the biggest sleazeball and I can't wait for this story to blow up.

It seems journalist aren't sure what sparked Dylan Sprouse to call out Jared Leto. But James Gunn made a video in 2015 which he later deleted claiming Jared Leto slept with underage girls. There is also a reddit comment of someone claiming their school friend slept with Leto multiple times when she was 13/14. Another teen says Jared Leto asked for her email and sent creepy messages to her when she was 17 and Leto was 34.

Yikes, this is the first time I hear about this online. I actually know a girl that says she had relations with him once at a show in MD ... when she was 13.

Jared Leto has a history of being sexually depraved: an unholy quality of Satan. Jared Leto's depraved mindset fits the psychological-profile of Satan.

One may ask, why mention the sexual assault allegations against Jared Leto, creepy stories of Jared Leto, and pedophile allegations against Jared Leto in this book? Whether or not these allegations are true, isn't this book about Jared Leto being the "Antichrist"? What does Jared Leto's alleged sexual history have to do with him being the incarnation of Satan?

Understand that the incarnation of Satan is going to have the same predatory manipulative spirit and sinful nature as Satan the angel. There are so many stories and allegations about Jared Leto's personal life that fit the psychological profile as Satan. These stories are a testament to Jared Leto's character, his lack of humanity, his desire to groom and manipulate children for sexual pleasure and the feeling of feeling powerful. The incarnation of Satan, the false prophet, would not have moral limitations and would give into dark desires and fantasies and lusts.

30 Seconds To Mars' Jared Leto wants a bed-warmer

By Alyson Williams | Published on Monday 13 May 2013

As Thrash Hits noticed last Friday, Thirty Seconds To Mars are promoting their new LP 'Love Lust Faith + Dreams' via a slightly... well, weird new giveaway, the star prize of which is to spend a "magical night" in the band's Jared Leto's bed, at his 'crib'. Is it me, or is that weird? It's weird right? Yes, I think it is a bit. Like, weirder than that Kid Rock thing, or even the Psy thing. Weird.

Eligible to "ANYONE" (Anyone? Really?) paying in advance for the LP, 'The Sleepover' will have five winners in all, one of whom will be invited to sleep in Leto's coffi... I mean, bed. He, I hope, will be in the spare room. Travel is included, whilst post-snooze "vegan pancakes" are optional. Yuck.

HEY, 'LETO' GIRL – JARED SHOWS HE'S A TEEN PLAYER

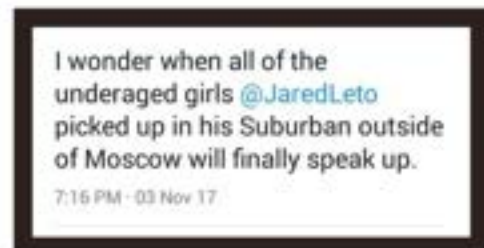

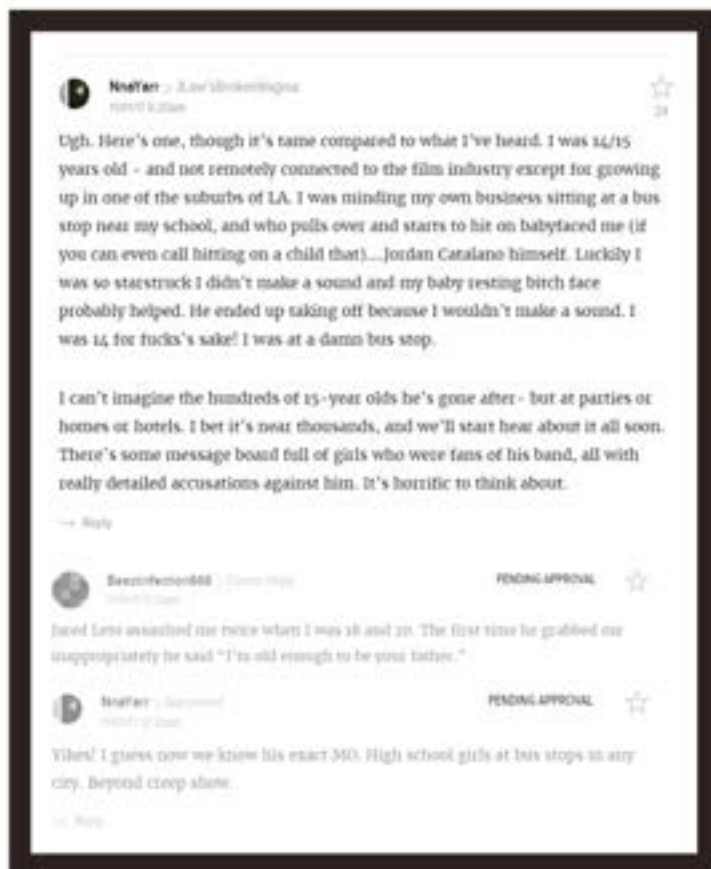

By Chris Wilson | September 12, 2005 | 4:00am

JARED LETO likes 'em young. The 33-year-old "Requiem for a Dream" actor – last seen squiring Ashley Olsen and Lindsay Lohan around town – has been aggressively pursuing many of the teen models shackled up at the Maritime Hotel.

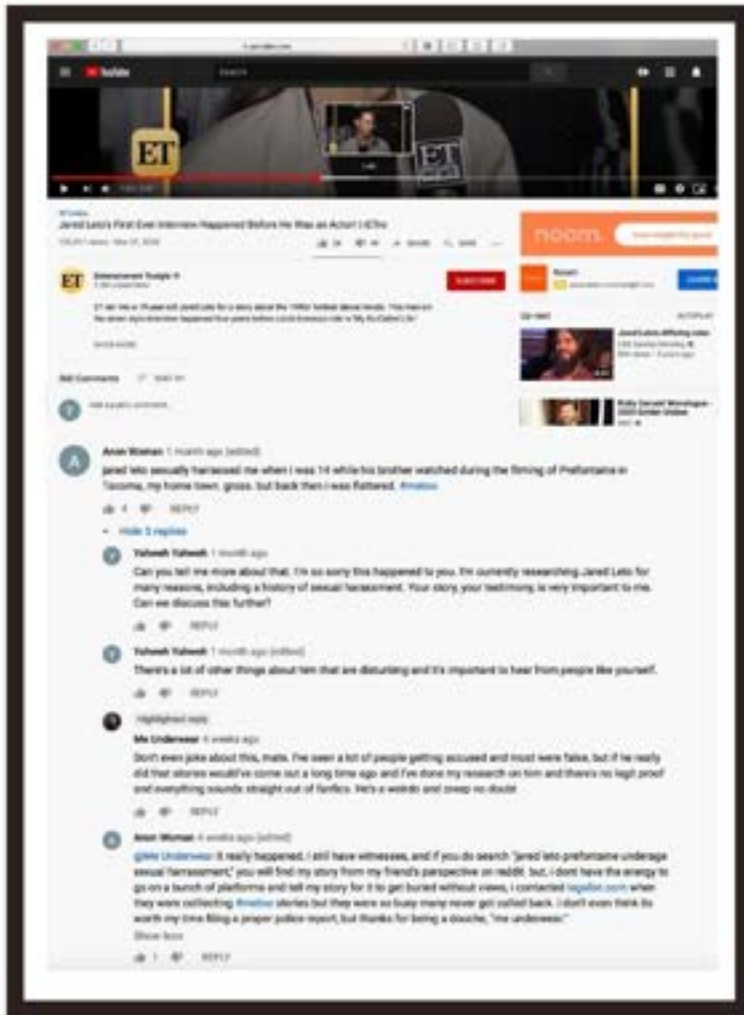

Leto, who booked a suite at the Meatpacking District hot spot while he was in town with his rock band, 30 Seconds to Mars, has become infamous for calling and texting some of his underage objects of desire several times a day, reports one in-the-know snitch.

"He's been approaching all the girls and inviting them to his shows," snickers the source. "Girls from IMG, Elite, Next and Women are staying there, and Jared has been hitting on all of them. He's a serial texter. He is constantly texting these other 16- and 17-year-old girls. It's really kind of creepy."

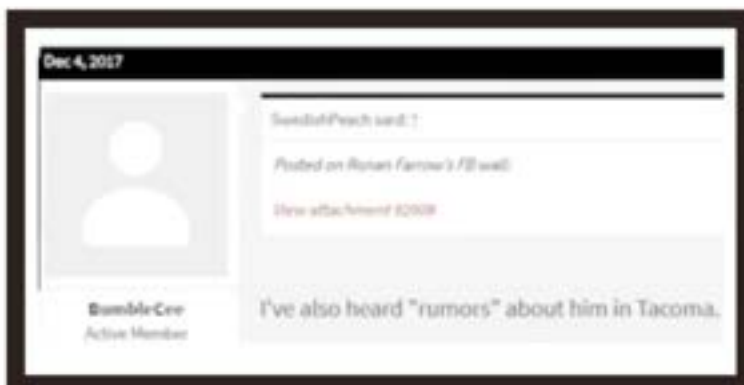

Allegations about Jared Leto stalking children in his van and when the children are at bus stops

Many allegations and testimonies about Jared Leto committing sexual assault are published on the internet

These 3 testimonies all look like they are referencing the same incident. The top 2 testimonies appears like they are from the same individual. It looks like this person is seeking help and has tried multiple internet platforms to get their message out and heard about informing the public that Jared Leto is a sex abuser and is a pedophile. I myself discovered the YouTube testimony and tried asking the commenter to elaborate on the subject matter, which is pictured. After more research I discovered more testimonies that seem to reference this incident. Jared Leto acted in a movie called "Prefontaine" that was filmed in Tacoma, Washington where these incidents are said to have been taken place.

A lot of these testimonies get shut down by people, especially people who are fans of Jared Leto. People often get harassed by Jared Leto's followers who tell their sexual assault testimonies and times when they were creeped out or preyed upon by Jared Leto. Jared Leto's naysayers try coming up with every excuse they can to dismiss these sexual assault allegations and try to prevent these allegations from seeing the light of day and becoming more widespread. They try to prevent these allegations and testimonies from having any real-world influence and legal and criminal consequences for Jared Leto. They try discouraging these allegations from going to court and at the same time these same people argue that since Jared Leto has not been found guilty in the court of law, that means he is innocent and that these allegations and testimonies are false.

A common thing Jared Leto fans say in response to these testimonies and allegations against Jared Leto is that they are all "erotic fan fiction" of Jared Leto of his fans having "rape fantasies" of Jared raping them.

First of all, someone who inspires people to write "rape fan fiction" is likely someone who needs to be investigated, regardless. But besides that, these testimonies are clearly not erotic fan fiction. These are discussions on message boards and comment sections on the internet where people are angrily discussing their experiences with Jared Leto and how they are hurt and creeped out by his behavior.

I had a friend who met him through LA parties (18 at the time), supposedly her friend who would semi regularly join them for movie nights at his place started getting intimate with him (also around 18, so totally legal and consensual). What followed was a persistent insistence for her to pretend he was her father during their romantic engagements.

Not illegal, just super fucking creepy. I was pretty blown because she got me his autograph and everything. I was a big fan of fight club and 30 seconds to mars...

I was working as an usher at a cinema 13 years ago and he came in and couldn't find his ticket when I asked for it then spilled popcorn on my feet.

I also used to know a girl who said he had raped her when she was 14.

His band, 30 Seconds To Mars, played in my town years ago and two of my female coworkers went to the show. His manager invited them and several other women onto Jered's bus to meet him and according to them, when Jered walked to the front section of the bus he was naked and point-blank told them to leave if they didn't swallow. As the story goes, they all laughed and split.

I met him about 7 years ago. I won a contest, it was just 5 of us girls. He got his eye on this really cute, 15 year old girl that was with us, looked at her the whole time, didn't care for the rest of us. When it was time to take pictures, his brother Shannon put his hand around my waist in a really not appropriate way. Leto is an asshole, with a huge ego and an endless hunger for money and attention. I regret ever being a fan and buying his music and concert tickets.

Jared Leto IS an uncaring, insensitive pedophilic pervert

I am not nor have I have been a groupie. To give a brief version of my encounters of Jared Leto, it goes like this:

I met Jared Leto when I was 17 (a naive innocent girl) on one of his movie sets in Brooklyn, when he was turning 24. He gave me his email address, we exchanged emails he was friendly, we exchanged numbers and that's when I started seeing he was a perv. I kept in touch with him off and on for 4 years, even when he was seeing girlfriends like Scarlett Johansson (which when I asked him about it once, he deflected the question). I don't know why I saw him at least half a dozen times and let him call me. I guess in my head I thought there was something he liked about me and deep down I wanted to think he was a decent fellow who liked spending time with me. I can say Jared was my first ever blow-job and anal sex experience and I wholeheartedly regret it nowadays. He was very pushy into coercing me to do sexual acts with him and he was quite rough and forceful. Even my 1st time doing anal ever, he was unnecessarily rough and when I told him it hurt he didn't stop. When we had regular sex vaginally he was again forceful and didn't do anything slowly or for my pleasure. And to confirm what others have said, he is a good size "down there" and he does like to do a little bit of choking and ass slapping (but he's not kinky, he just does it to feel more dominant I think).

The absolute worst part of it was that he liked to dirty talk but not have normal dirty talk. He liked the fact that even though I was 17yrs/18/19/20/21 (I was 21 the last time I saw him at a hotel in Gramercy park, the 1st time was the Maritime hotel on the west side) he wanted me to "tease him" and tell him I was 14 or 15. He really got off on hearing I was "underage" even though I wasn't and he wanted to think he was doing something very "dirty." To add to that, he wanted me to call him "Daddy" whenever he called me for phone sex or had sex at one of his hotels in NY. When I look back it now, I'm so disgusted with him. I'm upset with myself that I let this man, who was my idol and celebrity crush, take full advantage of the fact that I was young, dumb, and actually wanted to be his friend. I wish I could go back and tell my young self to have never emailed him. I'm 26 now and I learned from it. I don't ever want to be treated like that by any man. It just will always hurt whenever I see Jared Leto on tv or in a magazine, I just see the man who took advantage of my innocence and pressured me into things sexually that I'd never done and wasn't ready to do at that time. now I wish I'd done certain things with a boy who I loved. I can say one thing's for sure, I definitely don't idolize him anymore and I just think he's a disgusting, cheating prick.

lifancy - So You're A Tiger Now?

I've had the misfortune of being on set with him a few times over the last 10 years and he was generally abusive to the crew every time. And once he had an Eastern European girl waiting in his dressing room who was definitely not 18.

Yeah I saw a super casual reference to that online (more or less oh and he raped my underage friend once), but I know basically nothing about the dude or his history except that he was like mailing used condoms to costars etc when making Suicide Squad because he's just so method.

My ex-girlfriend told me they hooked up at one of his shows after he invited her backstage. I did the math--she was 16/17, he was 35/36.

This actually happened to one of my friends. She was 16 at the time when he took her into his limo

I heard rumblings when I was at Fred Segal.
This is when he was still with CD. He would come in with a different nymph every other young, but I could never be sure...

Note, for context: "CD" in this context stands for the actress "Cameron Diaz", who Jared Leto dated for 5 years, from 1999 - 2003. And "Fred Segal" is a clothing store.

No reasonable person will go alone to a 30stm concert. Especially when you're a minor. And not because Jared is a rapist as you claim but because the fans are really hysterical. If you're so sure of what you're accusing, you've never been to a 30stm concert.

I have a cousin who goes to an expensive private high school in LA. One of her friends is the daughter of a certain famous model from the 80's/90's and has been having sex with Jared Leto as a 13/14 year old. He's made her get an app that deletes messages after they're seen. And he knows she's under 18 because one of her friends took a picture of a message he sent her (before it was deleted) that said "can you come over tonight" and she said "no my parents are home". Feel free to call bullshit but I have a feeling someone will find out soon enough and he's going to be in deep shit.

Edit: I've gotten more than one PM from people who know which girl I'm talking about, so it sounds like more people are aware than I expected. This guy needs to go to jail.

Friend told me that she bumped into him back in like 2006-2007 at Warped Tour and he kept creeping in her. When she told him to back off, that she was only 15, he was like "age is just a number."

So I believe it.

Jared Leto is an absolute asshole. He preaches about peace and love and not being materialistic whilst wearing head to toe Gucci that he pays for by constantly telling his fans that they aren't proper fans unless they're buying everything he's selling. The fan base is a nightmare, it's like One Direction hysteria but in 40+ soccer moms and the closer you get to the centre of it, the fans that have been there since the beginning the more rotten it gets, it's LITERALLY rotten to the core. He's asked for all this footage when what will actually be shown is HES footage of whatever that he's sticking his penis in this month. Shannon is a drug addict who only 'dates' escorts who are young enough to be his daughter and then some, he's also had so much cosmetic surgery - his cheeks filled and brows lifted - that he looks more like the joker than his brother did in the shit show that was "Suicide Squad". Even Tomo isn't the sweetness and light everyone makes out. All those girls backstage that he won't make eye contact with? They're there because he sends his assistants out with back stages passes around whatever city they're playing in to find girls that look a certain way or will book models prior to arriving at the shows venue. With all the allegations of his sexual predatory behaviour, nothing's ever been proved because he has girls sign non disclosure agreements, they constantly play Eastern European countries as the laws regarding age of consent etc are not really taken seriously. One day it really is gonna go like Cosby, someone's gonna say rape and his PR team won't be able to stop it and then more and more will come out. I was stupid enough to be taken in by him, be part of his "cult". I even have a tattoo that matches his that makes me feel ill every time I look at it. I hope his dick rots off.

Lyrical Statistical Analysis

At least 59/69 of the songs lyrics of the songs Jared Leto has written are about and have explicit quotable references to God, war, judgment and Judgement Day, revenge, violence, secrets, hiding himself and his intentions from the world, sinning, being unrepentant, his cult and creating a new world order.

That's 85.5% of his songs.

At least 66/67 of his songs that I reviewed that Jared Leto wrote are arguably about these topics when analyzed contextually with Jared Leto's other songs, his cult, and his behavior in life.

That's 98.5% of his songs.

What are the odds that 85.5% to 98.5% of the lyrics of all Jared Leto's songs are about Satan, God, Jesus, a "holy war," biblical references, violence, murder, angels and demons, and taking over the world? For the most part, the only music bands that have so much Satanic content are black metal or heavy metal bands, whose music genre practically requires them to make songs about such things, but Jared Leto's band 30 Seconds to Mars is not a black metal or heavy metal band, and almost all their songs are about religion, specifically Christianity, and remarkably detailed lyrical writings about how the world will end and what will happen when it ends, but not just descriptions of what will happen, but the lyrics are often written in a way to incite certain actions to Jared Leto's followers to create the end of the world, like inciting violence, a riot, a revolution, or to murder. For an example, in his song Search and Destroy, Jared commands, "Grab your gun, time to go to hell" and "search and destroy". In his song Vox Populi, Jared tells people to gather soldiers. His songs are cleverly disguised commands for his followers to form a military. It is no coincidence that he calls his cult his "Echelon."

These are excerpts from Jared Leto's songs

Song Title

Lyric

Search and Destroy – "Sold my soul, from heaven into hell. Sick as my secrets, but never gonna tell. Lock the blame, burden of my dreams."
Santa Through the Backdoor – "Innocence sells well, give it up, go to hell."
Vox Populi (voice of the people) – "This is a call to arms. Gather soldiers. Time to go to war. This is a battle song. Brothers and sisters, time to go to war."
This is War – "This is war." "The war is won." "We will fight to the death."
Walk on Water – "Blood lust and a holy war."
Witness – "Jesus, save me. I'm in love with this hell. Murder, madness – I can't escape from myself."
Search and Destroy – "Grab your gun, time to go to hell. I'm no hero guilty as charged. Search and destroy. Found my faith, living in sin."
Santa Through the Backdoor (Intro) – "Look forward to seeing you again, but I probably won't be there this year after this life of sin." "And give thanks, for you have not yet felt the wrath of god."
Kings and Queens – "The age of man is over. A darkness comes at dawn."
Hail to the victor – "I swear on heaven and hell, this is my revenge."
Do or Die – "In the middle of the night, when the angels scream, I don't want to live a lie that I believe. Time to do or die."
Witness – "Witness, tell me. What you think of my life? Judge me. Jury. If I'm wrong, or right?"
Great Wide Open – "I swear to God I'm the Devil."

Brief Descriptions of Jared Leto's Satanic Songs

30 Seconds to Mars (2002) - this album has 10 songs that reference God and the biblical narrative, the apocalypse, war, violence, secrets, lying about his identity, and creating a new religion. And 3 additional songs in the album are arguably about the apocalypse; if so, a total of 13 songs in this album are about the apocalyptic narrative.

Song #: Song Title: Song Description:

1. Capricorn - references hiding from people, disappearing, and changing his identity.
2. Edge of the Earth - biblically references the world coming to an end.
3. Fallen - references "violence," Referencing the word "whore", Referencing "death" and mass amount of people dying. The song appears to allude to Jared Leto being a fallen angel. In the lyrics Jared claims he has "fallen through the air. I used to live out on the moon, but now I'm back here down on Earth." He seems to allude to himself as a "weak fallen man with the promise of an end."
4. Oblivion - references the world ending, fighting, Having a divine enemy.
5. Buddha for Mary - references Jesus, God, and rape, and "not believing in God."
6. Echelon - "echelon" means "army" and "echelon" is the name that Jared Leto calls his cult.
7. Welcome to the Universe - encourages people to "come into the pantheon." The Pantheon is a religion or a group of gods and very important people of god-like status. Jared Leto is inviting people into a new religion or inviting them to claim themselves as gods and enter "the pantheon." Satan's trick in Christianity is tempting people with power and luring people into wanting the fantasy of being a god themselves, just as Satan desires. He also mentions "erasing this face," which may mean erasing his identity.
8. The Mission - references a new "order" arising in the world. References "violence," References Jared Leto hiding his true identity.
9. End of the Beginning - Jared Leto references how he will start his own religion.
10. 92 Million Miles - the song asks the question "Where are the holy ones?" (Skeptical, but possibly about Satan.)
11. Year Zero - the phrase "year zero" means "the beginning of a revolutionary change" and "the beginning of any new system or regime" and the song references being saved and saving your face ("saving face" means saving your reputation after doing something evil or embarrassing).
12. The Struggle (Hidden Track) - references deception and world domination.
13. Anarchy in Tokyo (Japanese Bonus Track) - references rioting, war and asks the listeners, "Come join in on the war," and mentions "keepers of faith" and how there is a target on someone's back.

A Beautiful Lie (2005) – this album has 11 songs that reference God and the biblical narrative, the world ending, war, violence, secrets, and lying about his identity.

1 additional song in the album is arguably about the apocalyptic narrative; if so, a total of 12 songs in this album are about the apocalyptic narrative.

Song #: Song Title: Song Description:

14. Attack – references violence and attacking someone.

15. A Beautiful Lie– references deception and lying to people.

16. The Kill – references a fight between someone and (likely due to not repenting) and never changing and being “buried” and “killed” because of it. Jared Leto also sings in the song, “I’m done with you,” this line in the song is possibly directed towards God, meaning, that Jared Leto is done with God and his rules and then declares, “Bury me! Bury me! Bury me!” as if saying to God, “Go ahead, bury me; kill me; send me to hell; I know you’re going to do that to me for disobeying you - I don’t care!”

17. Was It a Dream? – Jared Leto admits he is a “selfish bastard” and that his selfish “intentions never change”.

18. The Fantasy- references heaven and a fantasy. A song about a “fantasy” and how Jared Leto cannot make his fantasy a reality. He mentions, “Every time I think I’m going to change it [“it” may be referring to reality], it’s driving me insane. Do you live? Do you die? Do you bleed for the fantasy? ... Maybe tonight we can forget about it [reality] all. It could be just like heaven. I am a machine. No longer living, just a shell of what I dreamed.” The song is likely alluding to how Jared Leto realizes that he is never going to truly become God and rule the world forever, but he will spend this life living his fantasy that he can be God and live in this fantasy as he tries to lure people to follow him and become a part of this fantasy. He mentions in this song that in reality, he truly is no longer living, but just a shell of what he fantasizes himself of being. And take note that this song is in the album, “A Beautiful Lie”. The “Beautiful Lie” Jared Leto is likely referring to is his life. He likely understands that his whole life is a lie and that he has been lying to the world about who he is and that he is Satan, a manipulator, and how he is living a lie of indulging in a fantasy that he is God and he likely believes that this “lie” is a “beautiful lie”. He has made music and has acted in movies and has done things that people have enjoyed and loved, and has done some arguably “beautiful things” with his life. So, he is likely referring to his life as a lie, but a beautiful one, “a beautiful lie”.

19. Savior – a song about Jared Leto telling someone, the world, or God to not save him. “Don’t save me, don’t save me, ‘cause I don’t care,” as if he knows he is going to hell for being evil and how he has definitively chosen to be evil and does not ever want to change and wants no one to try and save him. As the song title Savior implies, this song is likely about Jared Leto telling Jesus, the world’s savior, to not save him because he does not care.

20. From Yesterday – there are the lyrics, “On a mountain he sits, not of gold but of shit. Through the blood he can look. See the lives that he took. From a count to one, he’ll decide when he’s done with the innocent.” This could be referencing God or Jared Leto himself. This song references the act of taking people’s lives and looking at the trail of blood from those who are slain.

21. The Story – references God, lies and lying to people.

22. R-Evolve – references execution, a revolution, and being deception and pretending to be an ordinary person as a defense to deceive people.

23. Modern Myth – references lying and having secrets and secrets being found out.

24. Battle of One – references warfare.

This is War (2009) – this album has 11 songs that reference God and the Biblical narrative and the world ending and war and violence and lying about his identity.

Song #: Song Title: Song Description:

25. Escape – references war.

26. Night of the Hunter – references God, getting revenge, and how “the Devil is inside”.

27. Kings and Queens – references “God” and “The Father”, the end of the world and how “the age of man is over”, how people are people are “the victims of themselves”, likely referring to their own sins and how they will be judged for them.

28. This Is War – references war, and “fighting to the death”.

29. 100 Suns – references God, sin, and war.

30. Hurricane – Jared Leto references God, living a lie, never regretting anything (which is likely referencing how he will not be repenting for his sins), and the song also references Jared Leto asking someone, likely God, “Do you really want me dead? Or alive to torture me for my sins?”, which is likely a reference to Jared Leto being sent to Hell and tortured for his sins by God. The music video is a pornographic film of nudity and sex and is likely propaganda for sex and tempting people. The video has a Catholic priest, a Rabbi, and a Muslim priest throwing away their holy scriptures in a fire. The song also has children in the pornographic film during sex scenes, likely advocating for pedophilia.

31. Closer to the Edge – references “going down in flames” and taking people with him and not saying he is sorry and how he will not regret how he has lived his life.

32. Vox Populi – references war and how it is time to go to war and gather soldiers together, and asks the listener of the song if they want to be God and the Devil “like me” – “Wanna be God, the Devil, like me?”, asking people if they want to join the Devil and be a devil.

33. Search and Destroy – references Jesus, how it is “time to go to hell, and how Jared Leto admits he “sold my soul, from Heaven into Hell” like how Satan sold his soul to sin and how he has been thrown out of Heaven and how he is going to Hell.

34. Alibi – references “crashing and burning” and fading out of existence and never learning from one’s mistakes.

35. Stranger in a Strange Land – references “Jesus” and the Devil” and “angels” and “demons”, and Jared Leto states, “This is a call to arms. Gather soldiers. Time to go to war”, and Jared admits he is guilty of treason (Satan is guilty of treason against God), “I gave up my soul, I’m guilty of treason, I’ve abandoned control”. The song also references being violent inside and evil and being a ghost.

Song #: Song Title: Song Description:

37. Birth – references "heaven" and "hell".
38. Conquistador – Jared Leto discusses fighting to death in a holy war and how "we", likely his followers, are "children of a great empire", and the song "Conquistador" references saying a prayer, likely a prayer to win this "holy war" and this "fight to the death". The word "conquistador" means conqueror, which is what Jared Leto is likely referring to himself as.
39. Up in the Air – the music video of this song, the word "faith" appears in the music video in front of an upside-down pentagram, which is a symbol for Satan and witchcraft. The phrase "Propheta In Altum" is also shown in the video, which is a biblical phrase in a Latin Bible quoted from Jesus. The song also mentions "the end", breaking many laws, and wrapping his hands around someone's neck.
40. City of Angels – this song mentions "angels", but the song appears to be about the city Los Angeles.
41. The Race – references the Jesus Christ and how he sacrificed himself, and how "we are fighting for the world" and how Jared Leto's desire is never ending, likely referring to how his thirst for world conquest is never ending. The title of the song is likely referencing "The Race" for world domination.
42. End of All Days – references the end of the world, "gods", "prophets preaching", a manic messiah (likely Jared Leto referring to himself as the False Prophet and false messiah), how "all we need is faith" during the end of all days.
43. Pyres of Varanasi – this song is instrumental except for the final seconds where a woman's voice comes forward and says "faith" while ominous music is being played. Parts of the song sound so ominous that it sounds like a soundtrack for the end of the world.
44. Bright Lights – references "demons" and "angels" and consequences and a price that Jared Leto had to pay for his actions.
45. Do or Die – references "Heaven" and angels screaming, living a lie, and having to "do or die", and how "fate is coming" and time running out, and the song references fighting.
46. Convergence – this song is an instrumental, but there is a word spoke at the very end, "Dreams." This is a reference to the name of the album and referential to how Jared Leto is trying to inspire to "dream". This is a tactic he uses to inspire people and be seen as a person to admire which lures people to his cult.)
47. Northern Lights – references a "messiah" and a "holy war" and how "the end is near" and how "trumpets will sound", like how it is prophesized in the Bible, and how Jared Leto admits he will go on a "murdering spree" and how he cannot wait to "dance upon your grave" and how people "don't have a soul left to be saved".
48. Depuis le debut – references "angels" and "devils" and "sin" and "blood" and the song references Jared Leto murdering a lot of people where he admits "[I] murdered a million men" and how he has "danced with a million devils" and how he "Died from a life of sin" and how "there will be blood" which is said four times in the song.

America (2018) – this album has 10 songs that reference God, the biblical narrative, violence, and killing.

49. Walk on Water – references the Devil and Jesus and how he walked on water, fighting, "blood lust and a holy war".
50. Dangerous Night – references an "angel", violence, and Jared Leto says he is a "man on fire", which could be referencing him being someone who is in Hell or going to Hell. He references someone with a face of an angel, but a heart of a ghost, likely referring to how Jared Leto has a reputation as "an angel" for many people, but on the inside, it's all fake and empty, where he is in fact Satan and a deceptive and sociopathic embodiment of evil. The song also references "hiding" and "hiding what we've become", likely referring to "hiding" the sins people have committed and the demons that people have become.
51. Rescue Me – references demons and demons that are in Jared Leto's mind and being rescued, likely needing to be rescued from his own demons and needing to be rescued from being a demon and being Satan and wanting to be rescued from going to Hell.

56. Hail to the Victor – mentions God, a war, heaven, hell, faith, "revenge", and being the victor of a war and hailing the victor. A possible interpretation is that Satan would be hailed when he takes over the world – and the phrase "Hail Satan!" may also be a reference to the title. The song may be referencing Jared Leto having people hail him as "the victor" when he wins a war against God.
57. Dawn Will Rise – references "Come and strike me down" and "Come and kill me while you can".

Last night to say goodbye. You and me. Live like a dream.

An Analysis Vox Populi

Vox Populi is a song Jared Leto wrote. Vox Populi is a Latin phrase that translates to "voice of the people" and often is used to mean "the opinion and belief of the majority of the people". Jared Leto believes one day he will control the people of the world and that he will become the "voice of the people" and will control and lead the sinners of the world to a war with the people who do not follow him. This song is one of many examples of his songs that will likely be used as "war anthems" when Jared Leto wages war against the world and hunts down people who disobey him. This song is a "call to arms" as it is quoted with saying. Jared Leto has strategically made many songs to use to be song by people to command them to go to war and follow certain orders. There are already millions of people around the world who have listened to these songs and many who know these songs by heart. "Time to go to war", "This is a battle song", "Gather soldiers", "Ever in love with your own blood-lust disease?", "Wanna be God, the devil, like me?" The original song is recorded in an inspirational-sounding way, almost like it would be a song played at the opening entrance to an amusement park, as if people listening to this song are about to embark on a wondrous journey - a wondrous journey of fighting in a war, gathering soldiers to become "God" and "the Devil" like Jared Leto, while invoking their own desire for brutality and murder and their "blood-lust".

The lyrics to Vox Populi:

This is a call to arms, gather soldiers Time to go to war	Here we are at the start, I can feel the beating of our hearts Here we are at the start
This is a battle song, brothers and sisters Time to go to war Did you ever believe? Were you ever a dreamer? Ever imagine heart open and free? Did you ever deny? Were you ever a traitor?	Darkness falls, here comes the rain to wash away, the past and the names Darkness falls, here comes the rain to end it all, the blood and the game
Ever in love with your blood-lust and need? This is a call to arms, gather soldiers Time to go to war	Far, far away in a land that time can't change Long, long ago in a place of hearts and gold Far, far away in a land that time can't change Long, long ago in a place of hearts and gold This is a call to arms, gather soldiers Time to go to war (Far, far away)
This is a battle song, brothers and sisters Time to go to war Ever want to be free? Do you even remember? Wanna be God, the devil, like me? Ever want to just stop? Do you want to surrender? Or fight for victory?	This is a battle song, brothers and sisters Time to go to war (Long, long ago) This is a call to arms, gather soldiers Time to go to war (Far, far away) This is a battle song, brothers and sisters Time to go to war This is a call to arms, way of the night This is a battle song, way of the night Here we are at the start.

Jared Leto's Song Excerpts

Revolution

Tonight, it's a revolution
Tonight, we're going to war
Tonight, you better make a decision
Tonight, we're going to war

...

I think you need some thought control
Tonight, there is a situation
Tonight, it's the end of the world
Tonight, we'll take control of the nation
Tonight, we take control of the world

...

Come let's crush these weak defenses
Let's all lose our self-control
We will fight the false pretenses
And break the arm that has a hold
Come let's crush the opposition
And let us not do what we're told
We can kill the competition

Edge of the Earth

Apocalyptic and insane, my dreams will never change

R-Evolve

A revolution has begun today for me inside
The ultimate defense is to pretend Revolve around yourself just like an ordinary man

The only other option is to forget

...

To find yourself just look inside the wreckage of your past

To lose it, all you have to do is lie
The policy is set and we are never turning back

It's time for execution; time to execute
Time for execution; time to execute!

...

The evolution is coming!
A revolution has begun!

Conquistador

This is a fight to the death,
Our holy war,
A new romance,
A Trojan whore
This is a fight for love,
Lust,
Hate, desire

...

We are the children of the great empire

Say a prayer

...

This is a fight to the death

Jared Leto's Song Excerpts

Search and Destroy

Found my faith, living in sin
I'm no Jesus but neither are you my friend
I'm a whore above the broken dreams
This simple answer is never what it seems
...
Sold my soul, from heaven into hell
Sick as my secrets, but never gonna tell
Lock the blame, burden of my dreams

Do or Die

In the middle of the night, when the angels scream,
I don't want to live a lie that I believe.
Time to do or die.

Fate is coming, that I know.
Time is running, got to go.
Fate is coming, that I know.
Let it go.
Here right now
Under the banner of heaven, we dream out loud
Do or die, and the story goes

Kings and Queens

Into the night
Desperate and broken
The sound of a fight
Father has spoken.
...
We were the kings and queens of promise
We were the victims of ourselves
Maybe the children of a lesser God
Between Heaven and Hell,
Heaven and Hell.

The age of man is over
A darkness comes at dawn
These lessons that we've learned here
Have only just begun

Despise Le Début

I danced with a million devils.
Died from a life of sin.
Made love to a million angels.
Murdered a million men.

There will be blood.
There will be blood.
There will be blood.
There will be blood.

Jared Leto's Song Excerpts

Stranger in a Strange Land

Enemy of mine
I'll fuck you like the devil
Violent inside
Beautiful and evil

...

Angel or demon
I gave up my soul
I'm guilty of treason
I've abandoned control

The end is coming, everybody run

Lost in a daydream
What do you see?
If you're looking for Jesus
Get on your knees

Angel or demon
I gave up my soul
I'm guilty of treason
A Vatican's son

"100 Suns"

I believe in nothing
Not the end and not the start

I believe in nothing
Not the earth and not the stars

I believe in nothing
Not the day and not the dark
I believe in nothing
But the beating of our hearts

I believe in nothing
One hundred suns until we part
I believe in nothing
Not in sin and not in God

And here he bluntly says he does not believe in God, reiterating the point I made previously. He also blatantly says he does not believe in sin, so he does not believe in morality or doing anything wrong. He is stating that he is a man of lawlessness, that he does not believe in sin and not in God. Notice the similarities between Jared Leto's lyrics and the "man of sin" described in 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12:

"Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming. The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness."

Also, in the Bible, God is referred to as "the Alpha and the Omega," "the Beginning and the End." Jared Leto says he does not believe in the end and not the start. It is quite possible he is referring to how he does not respect God, "the Beginning and the End," "the Alpha and the Omega."

Jared Hires Gospel Singers to promote his album "America"

Jared Leto had a photo-op with gospel singers singing his music next to messages of his vague satanic, blasphemous, and sexual text. "Single shooter" (which appears in the billboard in the photo below) is referencing the amount of shootings in America. Leto uses triggering phrases as clickbait to bring attention to him and his music, all while not actually making a point and not telling anyone what his thoughts are on any of these issues, nor why he is purposefully putting these words together. He is also reducing God to a mere commodity like "sugar" or "alcohol." This is how the Antichrist tries to turn Christians into Satanists.

Look at the photo below in which Leto equates "God" to "sex," "alcohol," "guns," "sugar," and "bacon." He also puts sex positions on the bus: "cowgirl," "doggy [style]," "face [sitting]," "sixty-nine." Jared tries to make what he does "colorful" and "fun," which confuses people and lures them towards sinful behavior and into his cult and how he wants to control people. Jared Leto tries to normalize his insults to God by having the approval of the gospel singers, with whom he sings and poses with for the camera to encourage Christians to like him and not be suspicious of his satanism and ulterior motives.

Jared twists Christianity and Christian culture for Satanic purposes by hiring Gospel Singers to Sing his Satanic Music in Willis Tower in Chicago, IL

Notice his hat has devil horns on it while he is making these gospel singers sing his satanic song called "Walk On Water," which mentions a "holy war" occurring. Jared Leto tries tainting Christianity by incorporating Christians into his anti-God agenda. This is how the Antichrist tries to turn Christians into Satanists.

Leto, who won an Oscar for his supporting role in "Dallas Buyers Club," performed an acoustic version of the band's new single "Walk on Water" in front of a crowd of about 30 people — some radio contest winners and others who followed clues posted on social media — gathered on Willis Tower's 103rd floor for what was billed as a "listening party." Instead of getting an early taste of Thirty Seconds to Mars' new release due out Friday, he was joined by guitarist Stevie Aiello and the choir from New Faith Baptist Church International out of Matteson for the live mini-performance." <https://www.chicagotribune.com/entertainment/ct-ent-jared-leto-album-party-willis-tower-skydeck-0404-story.html>

Politics

Jared Leto, Zach Braff, Maria Bello, Darren Aronofsky and David Fincher are among those co-hosting a "Gen44" event for Obama on June 29 in Los Angeles.

Building on President Barack Obama's recent private meeting with many of Hollywood's leading young talents, a group drawn from the entertainment industry's youthful elite and chaired by actor Jared Leto will stage their own Los Angeles fundraising reception for chief executive's re-election campaign June 29, The Hollywood Reporter has learned.

Jared Leto is affiliated with the Democratic Party. He hosted a fundraiser for Barack Obama's 2nd campaign. He has met Barack Obama and may be well acquainted with other politicians and political powers. He may use these connections to gain political power.

Jared Leto is one of the biggest names in the tech industry and Silicon Valley and he is quoted as being "one of the best tech investors"

This is Jared Leto on the On the CNBC show "Squawk Box" where they discuss Jared Leto's extensive Silicon Valley tech investment portfolio. It is important to note how Jared Leto is one of the biggest names in the Silicon Valley tech world. People in this community are some of the most powerful people in the world who control the future of technology. Jared is friends with many powerful millionaires and billionaires and these people can help Jared Leto reach heights of power and control in the world.

People may also use this information to see Jared Leto as a "capable person" politically, someone who is smart and knowledgeable about business and economics. This could aid him in winning people's trust politically.

It is also important to note the wealth Jared Leto has and that he is able to use. Jared Leto is capable of funding certain schemes for power in the world himself, along with using the collective wealth and resources of his wealthy friends in the tech world. These are also people who are connected to big tech and social media platforms that control how people behave online. Jared Leto is positioned to possibly influence people who are controlling people through mainstream news media or by social media. He may be able to be the person controlling everyone in time and use these powerful resources to gain full authoritative power.

Jared Leto was an earlier investor for big successful companies like Spotify, Uber, Airbnb, Reddit, Nest, Stripe, Slack, Zenfets among almost 50 other companies as reported in 2016.

For context for the article below, Ron Conway is an American venture capitalist. He is a Silicon Valley tech insider who has a net worth of over a billion dollars. This is the man who originally said Jared Leto is one of the best tech investors (pictured above).

During the show, the man sitting next to Jared Leto at the table (pictured left), Tim, a tech insider, insists on telling how Jared Leto is one of the biggest names in Silicon Valley tech investing, he explains:

"Last year we [Leto and himself] were at the Vanity Fair at [the] New Establishment [Summit] at San Francisco - and Ron Conway is good friend of both of ours - and Ron, before I met Jared, pulls me aside and said, "Hey, there's Jared Leto, let's go over and talk to him. He's one of the best tech investors that I know."

And it was amazing to talk to him [Jared Leto] because at that event was all the insider tech people from Silicon Valley - Jared is one of them.

So, while he is an Academy award winner, in Silicon Valley, he's just as comfortable and drives just as much value, not because of his celebrity name, but because he's at the front edge of all these tech investments."

Jared Leto's Interview Documentary Series, Beyond the Horizon

His documentary series Beyond the Horizon is a breadth of the types of people Jared Leto is friends with and acquainted with. This demonstrates how connected he is to powerful people.

A list of some of his guests on the show:

Al Gore - Former Vice President and environmental activist
Deepak Chopra - A prominent New Age spiritual leader, alleged "meditation expert"
Jeff Koons - Artist
Boyan Slat - Clean ocean innovator/inventor/engineer/environmentalist
Charles Boldan Jr - NASA administrator/"space travel expert"
Walter Isaacson - Author/"media expert"

John Kiriakou - Former CIA
Edward Snowden - NSA government whistleblower
Howard Dean - Former politician
Shepard Fairey - Artist
Sheyna Gifford - "Outer space expert"
Antonio Villaraigosa - Former mayer of Los Angeles
Jonah Peretti - BuzzFeed founder
Marina Abramović - Performance artist

The tone of the show begs to viewer to believe that Jared Leto and the guests are all "very smart people" who are having "very smart conversations" and that these people on the show are smarter than you. It's as if the show gives the impression that there are an overwhelming amount of problems going in the world to the viewer that the viewer cannot solve. Like the name of the show suggests, Beyond the Horizon, the documentary series seems to try to give the impression that there is so much more beyond what people see and that the guests on the show are the elite geniuses in society who are privy to the big answers and understands of life, society, and what decisions to make for the future. This show may be a tool for Jared Leto to give people the impression that he is an intellectual who is well-versed enough in all subject matters, a "Renaissance man" of sorts, who can handle understanding and solving these problems that are discussed in this documentary series. This documentary series may be propaganda to paint Jared Leto in a way that makes him look like a genius who is talking to other geniuses about things that an average person would feel clueless about.

Many cult leaders try to advertise themselves as a genius so people instantaneously follow them: like the cult leader of NXIVM, Keith Raniere who portrayed himself as a genius abused and brainwashed his followers; or like Bentinho Massaro, another cult leader, who tells a tall tale of how he mastered spirituality and became "enlightened" at a young age and allegedly realized that he is as enlightened as any other spiritual figure where he now attracts followers around the world who treat him like he is their leader to enlightenment.

Think. Why would Jared Leto so intentionally get his forearms tattooed with this symbol which is so conveniently and mesmerizingly displayed and then create a ton of merchandise that has this symbol on it, where he then instructs his followers to get this tattoo on their body? Why is he so dedicated to this symbol and making it seem more important than the Christian cross?

Take note of how many projects Jared Leto is involved with: being one of the "best" tech investors in the world, acting in major films, he is the main model and the "face" of the major luxury clothing line Gucci, he has been involved with Democratic Party politics, he has an international rock band where he makes songs that predominantly have to deal with the end of the world occurring and a holy war occurring between God and Satan, he has a documentary series where he invites major thought leaders, people involved in technology, outer space research, spirituality, politics, art, and culture, where Jared Leto is made to look like a thought leader and genius among them. Think to yourself, if the incarnation of Satan where to be positioned to take over the world, wouldn't he want to be placed exactly where Jared Leto is? Jared Leto is politically, financially, culturally positioned to lead a massive global cultural and political uprising. He has the world at his fingertips. What are the odds that I, Michael, had little awareness of who Jared Leto is, and then God told me Jared Leto is the incarnation of Satan, and then I discover how perfectly positioned Jared Leto is to be a world leader? How many other people in the world are doing what Jared Leto is doing? How many other people so perfectly fit the profile of "the man of sin?"

Thirty Seconds to Mars' Jared Leto Started a Cult—Because of Course He Did

By Rae Alexandra Sep 5, 2019

In the middle of August, Thirty Seconds to Mars—the rock band Jared Leto has fronted since 1998—returned from an island retreat they'd held in Croatia for hundreds of fans and proudly posted photos that had a distinctly Peoples Temple vibe. (Well, if everyone at the Peoples Temple had been white, anyway.)

The pictures showed Leto doing his best Jesus impersonation in flowing white robes, addressing fans who sat dotingly at his feet, and being followed around by hoards of young women. The band captioned the photos "Yes, this is a cult."

The band has been using that tagline for years now, on social media, in merch and in music videos. In 2013, Leto told The New York Times Magazine that it was "a joke, a response to journalists saying, 'You have such a cult following.'" This is the first time, though, that the band has taken the reference to its most literal conclusion, even though they've been holding "summer camps" since 2015, and taking every opportunity to financially fleece their audience since the very beginning.

Thirty Seconds to Mars fans already collectively refer to themselves as "the Echelon," and are a group that seems overwhelmingly immersed not in music nerd-dom, but rather a more general sort of love for the community surrounding the band. The four-year-old video below doesn't bother itself with the band's music. Instead, it more closely resembles a commercial for a megachurch.

The Meniac Messiah...
Seduction is his game...

(As illustrated above in a Jared Leto fan's Instagram post, "Meniac Messiah" and "Seduction is his game" are lyrics Jared Leto wrote in one of his songs. His fanbase identifies him as "the maniac messiah" from his song, which he was clearly referring to as himself. And he sings "seduction is his game", meaning he uses his sex appeal to tempt people into liking and following him.)

Like many cults, the Echelon espouses an us vs. them mentality via the hashtag #YouWouldntUnderstand, a refrain Leto repeats often. That idea has pushed supporters to ever more fervent degrees of devotion any time the band receives any degree of criticism. (Scientology followers have been employing a similar methodology for decades.)

Leto is acutely aware of this degree of fan dedication (which is why the band once held a competition in which—appropriateness be damned—the prize was a night sleeping in his bed). In 2013, he said, "If people like Thirty Seconds to Mars, they really, really, really like it... We have this cult, this family these believers." It's this knowledge that has given the band a sense of entitlement so ingrained, they have been known to specifically request their fans get tattoos in their honor. (Take that, NXIVM!)

View Profile

Just as cult members often demonstrate their devotion by throwing money at their chosen group, the most obvious way Leto fans show their commitment is by giving Thirty Seconds to Mars way too much of their cash. The band's upcoming Camp Mars, taking place between Sept. 7–9 in Malibu, charges $999 for two nights of outdoor camping, and you have to bring your own tent and supplies. (The getaway includes daytime outdoor activities like rock-climbing and archery, plus two Thirty Seconds to Mars concerts, which the band calls Church of Mars.)

There are several increasingly expensive dorm options, but the only way to sleep in a space that isn't shared with strangers is by throwing down $6,499 for a "VIP experience." Day passes do not offer much better value, with costs at $349 for a show, some snacks and the cheerful caveat: "This pass does NOT include a photo with the band."

Hardcore Thirty Seconds to Mars fans have become accustomed to paying hundreds or thousands of dollars for crumbs. This is a band that has charged up to $900 for meet and greets in which they are sometimes removed to the point of literally wearing surgical gloves. (To put that in perspective, One Direction used to charge $658, Rihanna was still only charging $116 in 2015 and Taylor Swift has a policy of not charging fans to meet her at all.) One of the great ironies of all this is that Leto declared the band "anti-greedy" in 2013.

The band's obsession with money is not invisible to their faithful following, but observing fans discussing the cost of loving Thirty Seconds to Mars online can be rattling. There is a sense that while some of them feel ripped off, they are also fearful of fully expressing their disillusionment. In a lengthy article about the tightening of restrictions during signing sessions with the band, one blogger wrote: "The 10 seconds it took for them to sign PLUS the few minutes they'd stop in order to collect the present you brought them... seems short for the amount of money... but it was usually quite fun." Another wrote: "I paid 250$ just to have early entry [to a concert]. Over priced, however, it was the BEST show ever."

In addition to the obvious financial benefits, wrapped up in all of this cult business is Jared Leto's untethered self-absorption. In 2013, Leto went to the trouble of buying the rights to goofy modeling photos from his My So-Called Life days and then getting them scrubbed from the internet by threatening legal action.

Music journalist Raziq Rauf told KQED: "After Leto sent cease and desist letters to some of his fans, I decided [to repost] the photos. I duly received very threatening legal notices of my own, so ceased and desisted. While it was amusing, Leto is a very wealthy and powerful man with very wealthy and powerful people in his team. He's the one percent and I couldn't compete with that."

It was a moment that demonstrated how much Leto's narcissism stretches beyond the bounds of normal celebrity. A criticism frequently leveled at Thirty Seconds to Mars early in the band's career was that they more closely resembled actors playing rock star dress-up than an actual, real-life band. Despite ongoing criticism from music journalists that the band's sound is "hollow and emotionally one-note" (last year, Spin described Leto's lyrics as "meaningless word salad"), pretending to be a rock star for long enough did eventually result in Leto becoming just that.

So could Leto's persistent assertion that he's the leader of a cult mean that too is finally becoming a reality? If one considers the band's entire history, Thirty Seconds to Mars forming a cult doesn't just seem like a reasonable possibility—it feels almost like an inevitability.

Jared Leto Cult | In Jesus | Not Dead

Jared Leto Cult Update #1: 'It's not a cult!'

Actor, musician, and now apparently Jesus 2.0, Jared Leto has often been a questionable figure, mainly when he started to dress, talk, and walk like Jesus. (We're guessing how Jesus might have walked. His band, 30 Seconds To Mars has always had a very dedicated following. If you watch any of their videos or live footage you can quite clearly see people in the crowd losing their minds and worshipping the ground he stage dives on. 30STM fans are also known as The Echelon, a herd of - mostly young females - that endeavor to follow him everywhere he goes with the hope of an audience with him and his shiny Jesus beard.

However, things seem to have taken a very unsettling turn as Jared Leto has now started an actual cult where he invites his fans to join him on an isolated island where he proceeds to walk around like some sort of modern-day Jim Jones preaching to his choir. If you don't know who Jim Jones was, he founded a cult in northwestern Guyana under The Peoples Temple. The cult town was supposed to be a religious safe haven for Christian worshippers, however, claims of abuse, kidnapping, and of course the mass suicide of its 900 residents threw that all into questions. Not to mention Jim Jones shot himself.

So, in regards to Jared Leto's island, is it a cult? Yes, he said so himself. "Yes, this is a cult, #MarsIsland" via the band's Twitter page, not to mention all of the people that frequent the island actually call it a cult as well. Mars Island is the name of the island Jared invites his trusting followers to join him for several days at a time, for a price of course.

The official description of Mars Island is as follows "Mars Island is a three night, all inclusive festival experience. Relax and restore with yoga amongst the trees, take a dip in the pool, catch a midnight screening or gaze at the stars, and catch two intimate performances with Thirty Seconds To Mars. Mars Island is an experience like no other."

Now, this might all seem very innocent and a genuine retreat where fans get to hang out with Jesus... sorry, Jared Leto. However, it's not the island itself that's the concerning aspect, it's Jared Leto. Most cult leaders don't actually wake up one day and think "You know what, I'm going to start a cult and people can come and go as they please". Cult leaders are generally psychotic and start to believe that they are indeed from a higher power, some sort of messenger from God sent to Earth to carry out special teachings to "these" people. And, this is exactly what seems to be going on here.

Cult leaders start to feel very powerful as their followers hang onto their every word and praise the ground they walk on. Also, just look at the pictures of Jared Leto, he is very much taking on the role of an open armed Messiah. Dressed all in white with his biblical hair swooning his audience and being the centre of attention. Plus, everyone is dressed in white, it literally looks like a cult. AND THEY CALL HIM A PROPHET.

Let's not forget the cost of this "Experience". Starting at a reasonable $999 that including flights or travel to the island and rising to a staggering $4,499 with this higher fee including a Mars Passport and Exclusive VIP experience with Jared. You can't help but feel like the Mars Passport is actually sold to you under the impression it's a passport to Mars and one day you'll be going there, just drink this magic potion and hey presto, you're dead.

You can also get a tattoo of a smiley face or the cult symbol which is a triangle with a line through it.

Jared Leto Cult Update #1

Since the publication of this article, many of Jared's devoted followers have flooded to defend him. They have put forward what they believe to be solid arguments that outline why this is NOT a cult.

- 1) Constantly repeating the phrase "It's not a cult"
- 2) Trying to insult me
- 3) No one has died
- 4) It is actually called a cult because Jared trademarked the phrase "Yes, it's a cult" which was supposed to be a joke.

One person even called me French, the cheek! As incredibly well thought out as these arguments may be, the last one is the icing on the cake. Not only has Jared Leto managed to form a cult, he's convinced everyone it's not a cult. Sounds like a cult. The main argument though is that it's all a big joke.

Here's a short list of other things that exist as a joke

- 1) The Earth revolves around the sun
- 2) The Earth is flat
- 3) Raging Area 51
- 4) Global Warming
- 5) Donald Trump
- 6) An actual Cult

Yes, an actual Cult called Athere, by Bachir Boumassa. He started as a YouTuber and then literally formed a cult. When fans questioned what he was doing, he made a comical video pretending to be a cult leader. Guess what happened? Many people thought he was serious and moved to his compound in Germany where he literally ran a cult.

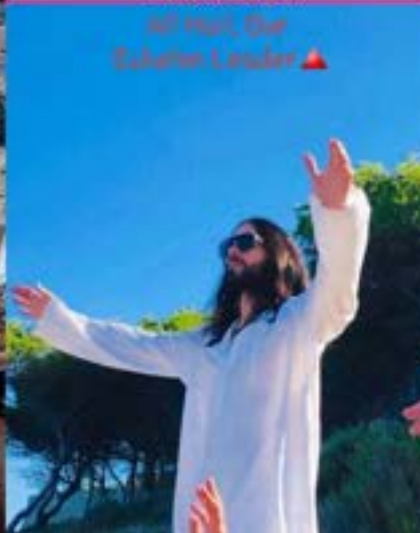

He responded to the claim of a Cult leader with "We are a loosely defined group of people who work to make as much of a positive difference in the world as we can". Funny, that sounds very similar to what Jared's followers have been saying. Read the full story here about Bachir Boumassa.

It has also come to my attention that some of his followers wear a bracket with the words "Yes, it's a cult" written on it.

Mars Island is an island whose actual name is Obonjan. The island is in Dalmatia, Croatia near Šibenik, Croatia. It is one of the islands that belongs to the Dalmatian Islands.

Jared Leto leases the island from a company. This is the island where Jared Leto dressed up in white and told his followers on the island to do the same, which they did. And photos of the occasion were released on the internet by Jared Leto and the photos were captioned, "Yes this is a cult."

This is Jared's ad campaign for his America music album

Where does Jared Leto's darkness come from?
Where does his narcissism, his lawlessness, his sociopathy,
his hunger for power, and his hedonistic- nihilism come from?

It is Jared Leto's nature of being Satan.

1 John 3:8

Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning.
